Orkin Expands to Turkey

Pest Control Leader Increases European Presence

ATLANTA, June 29 /PRNewswire-FirstCall/ -- Rollins, Inc., a nationwide consumer services company (NYSE: ROL), announced today that the company, through its wholly owned subsidiary Orkin, will begin providing pest control service in Turkey in the second half of 2010. Turkey marks the sixteenth international country Orkin services.

"Turkey encounters many of the same pests we encounter in the U.S., like cockroaches, ants, house flies and rodents," said Tom Luczynski, Orkin vice president of international development and franchising. "We are excited to bring our pest control expertise and excellent customer service to Turkey."

Orkin will offer primarily commercial pest control service, along with some additional residential services, throughout the country. Firat Imamzade, currently involved in the pest control and chemical distribution business, will own and operate the franchises.

"We are pleased to partner with Orkin to bring superior pest control to residences and businesses in Turkey," said Imamzade.

Dr. Zeliha Imamzade, technical and training director for Orkin Turkey and wife of Firat Imamzade, has completed the initial franchise training in Atlanta, Orkin's U.S. headquarters, at the company's award-winning training center.
