Amesite's Announces TX-RAMP Certification, Paving the Way for Transformative Educational Partnerships in Texas

DETROIT, Jan. 17, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Amesite Inc. (NASDAQ: AMST)

Amesite Inc., an AI-driven learning platform leader, is pleased to announce its provisional certification under the Texas Risk and Authorization Management Program (TX-RAMP), enhancing its partnership prospects with Texas' public colleges and universities. This certification is a testament to Amesite's unwavering commitment to delivering secure and scalable learning solutions in the education sector.

Dr. Ann Marie Sastry, CEO of Amesite, expressed excitement about achieving the TX-RAMP certification. "This certification reaffirms our role as a secure and reliable technology partner for Texas' educational institutions," said Dr. Sastry. "Amesite is poised to assist colleges and universities in swiftly launching impactful programs that drive student success and regional workforce development."

Amesite's ability to quickly deploy customizable, AI-powered online learning platforms is particularly relevant for Texas community colleges. The new, outcomes-based funding model under Texas House Bill 8, emphasizes student success metrics such as earning valuable credentials, successful transfers to four-year universities, and completion of dual credit courses. Amesite's certification enables its partners to rapidly deploy courses that meet these criteria, on their own brands. Amesite's TX-RAMP certified, fully integrated solution also provides 24/7 data access for effective reporting and program development. Partners can also leverage Amesite's extensive catalog of workforce development programs, launching in less than 24 hours, in addition to placing their own programs on the easy-to-use platform.

With student enrollment expected to reach 1.62 million by 2025 across Texas' educational institutions, Amesite is strategically positioned to support this growth. The company's platform is designed to help these institutions adapt to changing demographics and educational needs, enabling them to offer relevant, data-informed educational programs.
