GONZALES, La., March 26, 2012 /PRNewswire/ -- Crown Crafts, Inc. (NASDAQ-CM: CRWS) announced today that its Board of Directors has doubled the Company's quarterly cash dividend on its Series A common stock to $0.08 per share, compared with the previous rate of $0.04 per share. This new rate represents a return of 7.4 percent on an annualized basis and will be paid on July 6, 2012 to stockholders of record at the close of business on June 15, 2012.

As previously announced, the Company will pay a cash dividend of $0.04 per share to stockholders of record at the close of business on March 16, 2012.

"This action by the Board is a strong statement about its confidence in the underlying strength of our business and in our ability to continue to generate strong and sustainable free cash flow," said E. Randall Chestnut, Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We are pleased to be able to reward our stockholders with this significant dividend increase and look forward to continuing to create stockholder value."

Chestnut noted that the increased cash dividend will not preclude the Company from continuing to pursue strategic acquisitions. "With our strong operating cash flow and debt-free balance sheet, we are well positioned to continue to be an industry consolidator and acquire attractive assets that extend our portfolio and help drive our financial results," he said. "Over the past ten years, we added several key businesses to our portfolio, while simultaneously eliminating approximately $48 million of debt from our balance sheet. We will continue to grow the business in this aggressive, yet prudent, manner."
