

Tomorrow Street, a joint venture between Vodafone and Luxembourg's technology incubator, chooses Arqit to add Quantum Security Solutions to its portfolio

LONDON, April 16, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Arqit (Nasdaq: ARQQ, ARQQW), a global leader in PQC migration tooling and quantum-safe encryption, has been selected to join the Tomorrow Street portfolio as a Scaleup Partner. Arqit is the first quantum security company to join the portfolio.

This milestone follows Arqit's participation in Tomorrow Street's 2025 Scaleup X programme, where it engaged with technology stakeholders and demonstrated the relevance of its solutions in addressing emerging cybersecurity challenges across Tomorrow Street's ecosystem.

As part of the portfolio, Arqit joins a group of technology companies working across areas such as data, security, and digital infrastructure. The addition reflects growing demand for solutions that can support organizations in preparing for the transition to post-quantum security environments.

Through Tomorrow Street's ecosystem, Arqit will have the opportunity to develop and scale its capabilities further, supporting organizations in understanding cryptographic risk, identifying vulnerabilities, and planning for quantum-resilient security strategies. Customers can also benefit from a clear path to securing data and achieving data sovereignty in the post-quantum era utilizing Arqit's NetworkSecure™.

Sara Robles Moreno, CEO at Tomorrow Street:

"Arqit brings strong expertise in an area that is becoming increasingly important for organizations as they prepare for the future of security. Its journey through Scaleup X and into our portfolio reflects the role Tomorrow Street plays in identifying and supporting technologies with clear relevance to real-world challenges."

Andy Leaver, CEO at Arqit:

"We're proud to be the first quantum security company to join the Tomorrow Street Scaleup Partners portfolio. This has been driven by growing customer demand due to the acceleration of PQC migration timelines. Arqit's selection is a strong endorsement of the comprehensive, end-to-end solution we provide to help organizations meet these fast-evolving requirements."
