Veritone to Showcase Innovative AI Solutions, Including New Ask Veri Tool, at the 2024 NAB Show

AI leader to share demos and thought leadership on practical applications of AI for media and entertainment industries

DENVER--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Veritone, Inc. (NASDAQ: VERI), a leader in designing human-centered AI solutions, today unveils details of its participation at the 2024 NAB Show in Las Vegas from April 13 to 17. In booth W1642 in the Las Vegas Convention Center West Hall, Veritone will exhibit a variety of AI-powered demos that help media, entertainment and sports organizations redefine media management, rediscover archival footage, reimagine content creation and reconnect across audiences.

"We are thrilled to once again participate in the NAB Show, where we will highlight our latest AI solutions for media and entertainment," said Sean King, general manager for Veritone Media and Entertainment. "We look forward to engaging with industry professionals and sharing how AI empowers production teams, media managers and rights holders to supercharge their content workflows."

In a session titled, The Future of Ears: Navigating the Podcast Advertising Soundscape (Sunday, April 14, 3 p.m. West Hall Rooms W216 and W217), King will join Jacqueline Cohen of iHeart, Krystina Rubino of Right Side Up and Glenn Rubenstein of Adopter Media on a panel discussing the podcast advertising revolution, guided by the foresight of leading advertising agencies.

On Monday, April 15 at 11:30 a.m. King will join Kenny Ye, Corporate Strategic Development Executive at Creative Artists Agency, and Frank Gonzalez, Vice President of Business Affairs at CBS News & Stations, at the AWS Theater for a panel discussion that explores the importance of organizations gaining mastery over their data to adopt AI. The session will highlight how industry leaders best leverage these technologies to manage assets, create content, and connect audiences while safeguarding valuable IP across platforms.

Visitors to the Veritone booth can experience:

- Veritone Digital Media Hub – an AI digital asset management and monetization solution that helps media and sports organizations easily tag and manage digital assets as well as create new revenue streams through robust e-commerce capabilities. At NAB, Veritone will introduce new product features including an enhanced user interface and navigation.
- Ask Veri – a 2024 IABM BaM awards finalist, check out Veritone's new conversational intelligence solution that helps Veritone Digital Media Hub users get actionable reporting insights through a user-friendly, chat-based tool.
