SGBX Subsidiary Olenox Energy Announces an Aggressive Drilling Agenda Slated to Begin Q4 2025 and Expand Throughout 2026

CONROE, Texas, Oct. 20, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- via IBN – Olenox Corp., a vertically integrated energy company and wholly owned subsidiary of Safe & Green Holdings Corp. (NASDAQ: SGBX), is pleased to announce Olenox has begun the initial review of several drilling sites on current leases held within its oil and gas portfolio.

As the energy development arm of SGBX, Olenox intends to implement an aggressive drilling program with plans to target completion of one drilling project during the fourth quarter of 2025, followed by an ambitious drilling agenda outlined for 2026 and beyond.

“While we are still bringing on legacy production on our leases, the company is committed to generate new production through an aggressive drilling program to meet our internal goal of 1,000 BOE a day by the end of 2026,” said Michael McLaren, CEO of Olenox Corp. “Through legacy wellsite revitalization, drilling and acquisitions, the company will push to meet or exceed these targets by year-end 2026”

Olenox continues to expand its U.S. energy footprint through strategic acquisitions and field revitalization.

“With oil production picking up and the refocusing of our manufacturing on container builds, we look forward to a stellar 2026 for SGBX and its subsidiaries,” McLaren said.

About Olenox Corp

Olenox Corp is a vertically integrated energy company operating across three synergistic divisions—Oil and Gas, Energy Services, and Energy Technologies. The company acquires and optimizes underdeveloped oil and gas assets in Texas, Kansas, and Oklahoma while supporting field operations with specialized well services and proprietary enhanced-recovery technologies. Olenox’s integrated model drives efficiency, increases production, and unlocks value across the energy lifecycle, positioning the company to capture opportunities often overlooked by traditional operators.
