Entertainment Properties Trust CEO to Appear on CNBC's 'Squawk Box'

KANSAS CITY, Mo.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

Entertainment Properties Trust (NYSE: EPR) today announced that the company's President and CEO, David M. Brain, is scheduled to be a featured guest on CNBC's "Squawk Box" Friday, January 25, 2008.

Mr. Brain will share his thoughts on the focus and expertise of the company and the opportunity it presents for investors.

About CNBC's "Squawk Box"

"Squawk Box" is the ultimate "pre-market" morning news and talk program, where the biggest names in business and politics bring their most important stories. "Squawk"'s unique sense of street smarts and wit mixes business news with an unscripted and fast-paced exchange of banter.

Anchored by CNBC's Joe Kernan, Becky Quick and Carl Quintanilla, CNBC's signature morning program features reports from Washington, Silicon Valley, London and Hong Kong.

"Squawk Box" brings Wall Street to Main Street and is a "must see" for everyone from the professional trader to the casual investor.
