Sonic Automotive, Inc. Completes New Credit Facilities

CHARLOTTE, N.C., July 11, 2011 /PRNewswire/ -- Sonic Automotive, Inc. (NYSE: SAH), a leader in automotive retailing, announced today that it has entered into an amendment and extension of its existing syndicated credit facilities that were scheduled to mature in August 2012.

The amended syndicated credit facilities, which mature in August 2016, provide for the following:

- up to $500 million for new vehicle inventory floorplan financing, an increase of $179 million from the existing facility;
- up to $80 million for used vehicle inventory floorplan financing, an increase of $30 million from the existing facility, and;
- up to $175 million for working capital and general corporate purposes, an increase of $25 million from the existing facility.

The syndication was arranged through BofA Merrill Lynch who will also serve as the administrative agent. Lenders in the new syndicated credit facilities include four manufacturer-affiliated finance companies – Mercedes-Benz Financial Services USA; BMW Financial Services NA LLC; Toyota Motor Credit Corporation and VW Credit, Inc. – and seven commercial banks and other lending institutions. These lenders are Bank of America, N.A.; JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A.; US Bank, National Association; Wells Fargo Bank, National Association; Comerica Bank; Capital One, N.A. and World Omni Financial Corp.

B. Scott Smith, Sonic's President stated, "Most of the lenders involved in these credit arrangements have been financing partners for our Company for many years. We look forward to continuing to build on those relationships while also welcoming US Bank and Capital One as new lenders to our Company. We believe this new credit facility provides us with a stable capital structure for the foreseeable future as we continue our focus on further reducing our nonmortgage debt, owning our real estate and maximizing the opportunities within our existing portfolio of dealerships."
