Actuant Executives Adopt 10b5-1 Plans

MILWAUKEE--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Actuant Corporation (NYSE: ATU) today announced that certain of its executives have adopted prearranged trading plans in accordance with guidelines specified by Rule 10b5-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Company's policies with respect to insider sales. Rule 10b5-1 allows officers and directors of public companies, at a time when they are not aware of material nonpublic information, to adopt predetermined plans for selling shares of company stock.

Pursuant to the 10b5-1 plans, the executives (Goldstein, Lampereur, Blackmore and Boel) will be exercising stock options and immediately selling the shares of Actuant stock because the underlying options are approaching their 10 year term. The transactions may take place from time-to-time on or after March 22, 2011, subject to certain 10b5-1 plan criteria, including certain minimum price levels and daily volume activity.

The stock is being sold for personal financial planning purposes including portfolio diversification as a large portion of each executive's net worth is in the form of Actuant stock. The executives are, and will continue to be, in compliance with Actuant's officer stock ownership requirements.
