Use of Non-GAAP Financial Measures: In this presentation, we have included certain non-GAAP financial information, including for example, adjusted EBITDA, non-GAAP gross profit margin and operating profit margin and adjusted free cash flow. Our non-GAAP results exclude the effect, where applicable, of share-based compensation, COVID-19 shelter in place restrictions on manufacturing activities, manufacturing excursion, other manufacturing adjustments, expenses related to our acquisition activities (including intangible asset amortization, severance, and other restructuring costs, and legal and other general and administrative expenses associated with acquisitions including legal fees and expenses for litigation and investigations related to our Microsemi acquisition), professional services associated with certain legal matters, IT security remediation costs, non-cash interest expense on our convertible debentures, losses on the settlement of debt, and gains and losses related to equity investments. For the first quarters of fiscal 2024 and fiscal 2025, our non-GAAP income tax expense is presented based on projected cash taxes for the applicable fiscal year, excluding transition tax payments under the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. Our determination of our non-GAAP measures might not be the same as similarly titled measures used by other companies, and it should not be construed as a substitute for amounts determined in accordance with GAAP. There are limitations associated with using non-GAAP measures, including that they exclude financial information that some may consider important in evaluating our performance. Management compensates for this by presenting information on both a GAAP and non-GAAP basis for investors and providing reconciliations of the GAAP and non-GAAP results. Non-GAAP measures should not be considered in isolation or as an alternative to net income, cash from operations or other measures of profitability, liquidity or performance under GAAP. Certain supplemental information and reconciliations are available on our website at www.microchip.com/investors under the heading "Supplemental Financial Information".
