Sales for the fourth quarter of 2008 for our Lifeboat segment were $22.7 million compared to $34.5 million in the fourth quarter of 2007, representing a 34% decrease. Sales for the fourth quarter of 2008 for our Programmer's Paradise segment were $17.3 million compared to $12.6 million in the fourth quarter of 2007, representing a 38% increase.

Total gross profit for the fourth quarter of 2008 amounted to $4.5 million, compared to $4.3 million for the same period in 2007. Gross profit for the fourth quarter of 2008 for our Lifeboat segment was $2.5 million, compared to $2.8 million in the fourth quarter of 2007, representing a 13% decrease. Gross profit for the fourth quarter of 2008 for our Programmer's Paradise segment was $2.0 million, compared to $1.5 million in the fourth quarter of 2007, representing a 38% increase.

Total gross profit, as a percentage of net sales, for the quarter ending December 31, 2008, was 11.2%, compared to 9.2% in the fourth quarter of 2007.

Cash and cash equivalents amount to $18.7 million, representing 78% of our equity as of December 31, 2008. We have no debt.

"Our 2008 fourth quarter was a great quarter, considering the difficult economic environment and the fact that our Lifeboat unit ceased distributing VMware products as of October 1, 2008. Overall, we achieved 10% growth in quarterly income from operations," said Simon F. Nynens, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "Lifeboat has been taking steps to replace the VMware revenue, including signing new distribution contracts with six new software publishers in the fourth quarter. Excluding VMware, Lifeboat's sales increased by $2.3 million or 11% compared to the fourth quarter of 2007."

As stated before, the fourth quarter of 2008 marked the end of distributing VMware-labeled sales for Lifeboat. Total 2008 VMware-labeled distribution sales amounted to $29.2 million, or 17% of our 2008 revenue; product gross margin amounted to $1.0 million, or 6% of our 2008 gross margin. In 2007, total VMware-labeled distribution sales amounted to $57.2 million, or 32% of our 2007 revenue; product gross margin amounted to $2.5 million, or 15% of our 2007 gross margin.

2008 VMware sales for our Programmer's Paradise segment have increased significantly and we thank VMware for their continued partnership with us. Other lines also showed significant growth in 2008. While VMware-labeled distribution sales in 2008 declined by $28 million, our remaining sales, including sales for new software publishers, increased by $22 million.

We continue to manage the impact of the VMware change. We have successfully signed new distribution contracts in 2008 and continue to seek new partners in 2009. Due to the current uncertain economic environment, currently we cannot estimate the impact on our future sales and gross margins.

Total selling, general, and administrative ("SG&A") expenses for the fourth quarter of 2008 were $3.1 million compared to $3.1 million in the fourth quarter of 2007.

Net income for the fourth quarter of 2008 amounted to $902,000 or 2.3% of net sales as compared to $931,000 or 2.0% for the same period in 2007.

On January 28, 2009, the Board of Directors declared a quarterly dividend of $.15 per share of its common stock payable February 20, 2009 to shareholders of record on February 13, 2009.
