America's Forgotten to Have Exclusive World Premiere on SalemNow

CAMARILLO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Salem Media Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: SALM) today announced it is premiering the film "America's Forgotten" on its SalemNow platform. Responding to the hundreds of requests from interested audiences, "America's Forgotten" opens today exclusively on SalemNow for a World Premiere of the film. The film, initially set to hit theaters this October, went digital due to the Covid-19 circumstances. SalemNow is proud to host a weeklong exclusive world premiere for Uniglobe Entertainment's new documentary "America's Forgotten" on October 9, 2020. The premiere comes ahead of the film's October 16th nationwide multi-platform release.

SalemNow is Salem Media Group's Pay-Per-View video content platform targeting audiences interested in Christian and family-themed content and conservative values and is home to renowned films such as "No Safe Spaces," "Uncle Tom," and now, "America's Forgotten."

Regarding the partnership with Uniglobe Entertainment, Salem Media Group SVP, Mike Reed says, "SalemNow viewers have embraced truth telling films such as No Safe Spaces and Uncle Tom. Now, Salem (SalemNow.com) is excited to share Namrata Singh Gujral's 'America's Forgotten' with our listeners and audiences. 'America's Forgotten' is a powerful, eye opening film, exposing the dark side of illegal immigration. Sadly, it's a film, many in the film industry don't want people to see."

Commenting on the partnership, President of Uniglobe Entertainment, Namrata Singh Gujral says, "We struggled with the idea that we could not release the film in theaters so perhaps we wait it out until next year. But 'America's Forgotten' is such an important film for voters to watch before the November 3rd election. I am thrilled that I was able to find SalemNow as our partner in bringing this very crucial film to American audiences this October."
