Construction Partners, Inc. Announces Promotion Of Jule Smith To Chief Operating Officer

DOTHAN, Ala., Aug. 7, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Construction Partners, Inc. (NASDAQ: ROAD) (the "Company"), a vertically integrated civil infrastructure company specializing in the construction and maintenance of roadways across five southeastern states, today announced the promotion of F. Julius ("Jule") Smith, III, a Senior Vice President of the Company, to the newly created role of Chief Operating Officer, effective October 1, 2020. Mr. Smith has led Fred Smith Company, the Company's North Carolina subsidiary, for more than nine years. As Chief Operating Officer, Mr. Smith will be charged with driving the development of the organization and overseeing day-to-day operations of the Company.

Charles E. Owens, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, stated, "We are pleased to promote Jule to our new Chief Operating Officer position. As a former owner, Jule has continued to lead Fred Smith Company, our North Carolina subsidiary that we acquired in 2011. He has decades of experience and a proven track record as a respected leader within our organization and in his community. Jule has significantly contributed to our senior management team and successfully executed the company's strategy in North Carolina. With the expansion of our organization in recent years, we see this position as vital to our future growth and success. This new role strengthens our organizational structure and allows us to effectively manage today's business, while focusing and executing on our long-term growth strategy. We expect Jule's leadership, experience, and vision to enhance our organization."

"I am excited to serve as Construction Partners' Chief Operating Officer and look forward to working with our talented management team to lead the Company forward," said Smith. "With our dedicated, hardworking employees, I believe we are well-positioned to continue to execute on our strategic plan and I am optimistic about the future of our industry."

Ned N. Fleming, III, the Company's Executive Chairman, stated, "Jule is an extremely talented operator and executive that brings tremendous leadership skills and a deep understanding of the business, and our growth strategy, to this new role. He has led significant growth within our company since joining us nearly a decade ago. The Board has great confidence in him and our entire senior leadership team to continue executing our business model as a consolidator in a fragmented industry while driving long-term growth and value creation."

Mr. Smith, 51, has more than 25 years of construction management experience. Since 1992, he held various positions of increasing responsibility within Fred Smith Company. In 2004, Mr. Smith joined the United States Navy Reserve, receiving a direct commission as a Supply Corps Officer. Smith is active in state and local industry groups and in the Raleigh, North Carolina community, having served in numerous roles for the Carolina Asphalt Paving Association and the Carolinas AGC (a construction trade association), and on the Board of Directors for the North Carolina Chamber of Commerce, North State Bank, and St. David's School. Mr. Smith earned his Master of Business Administration and Bachelor of Arts degrees from Wake Forest University.
