

OLAPLEX HOLDINGS, INC.

NOMINATING AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMMITTEE CHARTER

I. PURPOSE. The purposes of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Olaplex Holdings, Inc. (the “Company”) are (i) to identify individuals qualified to become members of the Board, (ii) to recommend to the Board director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders, (iii) to develop and recommend to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company, (iv) to oversee policies and practices with respect to corporate social responsibility, environmental sustainability and climate-related matters applicable to the Company and (v) to oversee the evaluation of the Board and its committees. The Committee reports to the Board. The Committee shall fulfill these functions primarily by carrying out the activities enumerated in Section IV of this Charter. In order to fulfill these functions, the Committee members shall, within the scope of their duties, have complete access to Company personnel and documents. In performing its responsibilities hereunder, the Committee may consider information provided by the Company’s management, as appropriate.

II. COMPOSITION.

1. Number. The Committee shall consist of no fewer than three members of the Board, appointed to the Committee by the Board, taking into consideration the recommendations of the Committee. Members of the Committee may be removed at the Board’s discretion.
2. Independence. Except as otherwise permitted by applicable phase-in rules and exemptions, each member of the Committee shall meet any applicable independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market (the “Nasdaq”).
3. Chairperson. Unless a Chairperson is elected by the Board, the members of the Committee shall designate a Chairperson by majority vote of the full Committee membership. The Chairperson shall lead the Committee, including preparing the agenda, presiding over the meetings, making subcommittee assignments and reporting to the Board on the Committee’s behalf.
4. Determinations Regarding Membership. The Board will make all determinations regarding satisfaction of the membership requirements described above and will review, at least annually, the Committee’s compliance with such requirements.

III. PROCEDURES AND ADMINISTRATION.

1. Meetings. The Committee shall hold regularly scheduled meetings and such special meetings as circumstances dictate. Any two members or the Chairperson may call a meeting of the Committee upon due notice to each other member at least 24 hours prior to the meeting. Action may be taken by the Committee without a meeting if all of the members of the Committee indicate their approval thereof in writing or by electronic transmission.

2. Quorum. A majority of the Committee members shall constitute a quorum. The Board may designate one or more directors as alternate members of the Committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the Committee, provided that such alternate members satisfy all applicable criteria for membership on the Committee. In the absence or upon the disqualification of a member of the Committee, and in the absence of a designation by the Board of an alternate member to replace the absent or disqualified member, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not he, she or they constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any absent or disqualified member, provided that such other member satisfies all applicable criteria for membership on the Committee.
3. Voting. Action may be taken by the Committee upon the affirmative vote of a majority of the members present, provided that a quorum is present at the time such action is taken.
4. Annual Self-Evaluation. The Committee shall review, discuss and assess its performance as well as its role and responsibilities at least annually. Changes in role and/or responsibilities, if any, shall be recommended to the full Board for approval.
5. Subcommittees. The Committee shall have the authority to delegate to subcommittees of the Committee any of the responsibilities of the full Committee and to officers of the Company such responsibilities of the full Committee as may be permitted by applicable laws, rules or regulations and in accordance with the listing standards set forth by the Nasdaq.
6. Charter. The Committee shall review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter at least annually and recommend any proposed changes to the Board for approval.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES AND POWERS. The Committee has direct responsibility and power to perform the following duties:

- identify individuals qualified to become Board members, consistent with criteria approved by the Board, receive nominations for such qualified individuals and review recommendations put forward by the Chief Executive Officer (the “CEO”) and other relevant stakeholders, review the appropriateness of continued service of current Board members, and recommend to the Board the director nominees for the next annual meeting of stockholders, taking into account each candidate’s skills, judgment and professional experience and the overall diversity and composition of the Board and the Company’s current and future needs;
- recommend to the Board the classes on which such nominees should serve;
- periodically review the appropriate size of the Board and make recommendations to the Board in respect thereof;

- establish a policy under which stockholders of the Company may recommend a candidate to the Committee for consideration for nomination as a director;
- annually recommend to the Board qualified individuals to serve as committee members on the various Board committees and recommend additional committee members to fill vacancies as needed;
- if a vacancy on the Board or any Board committee occurs, identify and recommend to the Board qualified candidates to fill such vacancy, or recommend to the Board a reduction in the size of the Board or such Board committee, as applicable;
- develop and recommend to the full Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company that address, at a minimum, the following subjects: (i) director qualification standards, (ii) director responsibilities, (iii) director access to management and, as necessary and appropriate, independent advisors, (iv) director orientation and continuing education, (v) management succession and (vi) the annual performance evaluation of the Board;
- review the corporate governance guidelines on an annual basis, or more frequently if appropriate, and recommend changes as necessary;
- clearly articulate to each director candidate what service on the Board entails, including reference to the Company's corporate governance guidelines and directors' basic duties and responsibilities with respect to attendance at Board meetings and advance review of meeting materials;
- review the Company's practices and policies with respect to directors, including retirement policies, the size of the Board, service of non-employee directors, the meeting frequency of the Board and the structure of Board meetings and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto;
- recommend to the Board or to the appropriate committee thereof processes for annual evaluations of the performance of the Board and appropriate committees of the Board, oversee such processes for annual evaluations, and annually report to the Board the results of such evaluations, consistent with the requirements set forth in the corporate governance guidelines;
- review the functions, duties and composition of the committees of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with respect thereto;
- oversee the Company's corporate social responsibility, environmental sustainability and climate program, including monitoring trends in legislation, regulation, litigation, and governance, reviewing related public disclosures, and making recommendations to the Board and management regarding additional corporate social responsibility, environmental sustainability and climate actions and areas of opportunity (in each case to the extent not within the purview of another Board committee);

- consider and report to the Board any questions of possible conflicts of interest of Board members;
- provide for new director orientation and continuing education for existing directors on a periodic basis;
- oversee the maintenance and presentation to the Board of management's plans for succession to senior management positions in the Company, including the CEO; and
- report the Committee's actions and any recommendations to the Board on a periodic basis.

V. AUTHORITY AND RESOURCES OF THE COMMITTEE. In order to fulfill its role, the Committee shall have the sole authority to retain and terminate a search firm to assist in the identification of director candidates and have the authority to approve the search firm's fees and other retention terms. The Committee shall have the authority to retain an outside consultant to assist in evaluating the overall performance of the Board and have the authority to approve compensation for such consultant. The Committee shall also have the authority to retain outside legal, accounting or other experts that it determines to be necessary to carry out its duties and to determine compensation for such advisors. The search firm and any other advisors or consultants retained by the Committee shall be independent in accordance with independent requirements.
