Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Unveils 238 All-Inclusive, Ultra-Luxury Sailings for Its 2028-2029 Voyage Collection

Season includes 80 Overnight Stays Across the Collection, Three Maiden Ports of Call, Three Grand Voyages, and a 150-Night World Cruise

Luxury Travelers can Sail Aboard Regent's Newest Ship, Seven Seas Prestige™, as She Visits Canada & New England for the First Time

MIAMI, May 20, 2026: Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world's leading ultra-luxury cruise line, has unveiled its 2028-2029 Voyage Collection, featuring 238 new sailings around the world aboard The World's Most Luxurious Fleet®.

The season features three Grand Voyages, a 150-night World Cruise, and destination-rich, all-inclusive sailings through Africa & Arabia, Alaska, Asia, Australia & New Zealand, Canada & New England, the Caribbean, Panama Canal, the Mediterranean, Northern Europe, South America, and the South Pacific.

Guests can now pre-register their interest at RSSC.Com/2028-2029-Voyage-Collection before reservations open on May 27, 2026. Guests in the US and Canada who book by June 10, 2026, will enjoy a 50% reduced deposit.

"We are delighted to introduce another season of unforgettable journeys designed to inspire discovery and deliver meaningful travel experiences," said Wesley D'Silva, president of Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "From shorter escapes of seven nights up to our longer Grand Voyages, each sailing is designed to offer the perfect balance of immersive exploration and an unrivaled onboard experience – from our spacious suites and anticipatory service to unlimited included shore excursions and exquisite culinary experiences. We look forward to welcoming both new and returning guests on board."

As part of the collection, Seven Seas Prestige™, which is set for delivery in late 2026, will make her Canada & New England debut in fall 2028 with five 11-night itineraries. Timed for peak fall foliage, these voyages pair dramatic landscapes and renowned seafood with the unparalleled luxury of Regent's newest ship. Seven Seas Prestige will be 40% larger than Regent's previous ships, yet accommodates only 10% more guests, offering the ultimate space and service for immersive exploration.

Seven Seas Splendor® will visit Alaska's waters for the very first time, sailing 16 new voyages that call on destinations such as Icy Strait Point, Skagway, and Juneau. These seven-night itineraries immerse guests in the heart of the Last Frontier, offering up to 50 included shore excursions on each sailing.

In a first for Seven Seas Voyager[®], this voyage collection will include a quiet Mediterranean winter season starting November 2028, offering the opportunity to explore the region's most beloved locales from a different perspective.

The 2028-2029 season will see Seven Seas Explorer[®] sail in Africa & Arabia for the first time. Voyages will sail in spring 2029, ranging from 14 to 23 nights. Visiting compelling ports such as Abidjan, Ivory Coast; Walvis Bay, Namibia; and Luanda, Angola; discerning travelers will discover endless opportunities for adventure.

The collection also includes nine holiday voyages for luxury travelers looking to spend the festive season aboard The World's Most Luxurious Fleet[®]. Spanning destinations across Asia, the Caribbean, the Mediterranean and the South Pacific, these sailings invite guests to celebrate the season while exploring the world in unrivaled comfort and style.

Season highlights also include maiden calls in three new ports: Dundee, Scotland; Oulu, Finland; and Šibenik, Croatia. Dundee blends maritime heritage, striking architecture, and gateway access to the Scottish Highlands. Oulu offers natural beauty, coastal charm, and a growing creative scene. Šibenik captivates with its medieval old town, UNESCO-listed landmarks, and Adriatic coastline.

Further highlights of the 2028-2029 Voyage Collection include 80 overnight stays across the collection in captivating destinations around the world – from Bordeaux, France; to Copenhagen, Denmark; to Tokyo, Japan – allowing guests to experience each destination beyond sunset.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises' ever-expanding array of included luxuries includes unlimited included shore excursions in every port of call, exquisite cuisine across specialty restaurants and al fresco venues, fine wines and premium spirits, in-suite liquor with a daily replenished mini-bar, unlimited internet access, valet laundry service, onboard entertainment, pre-paid gratuities, and a one-night pre-cruise hotel package for guests in Concierge Suites and above. On board, guests revel in Unrivaled Space at Sea[®], with some of the most spacious accommodations and highest crew-to-guest ratios in the industry.

Regent's 2028-2029 Voyage Collection Highlights by Destination

Africa & Arabia

Seven Seas Explorer

The 2028-2029 season will see Seven Seas Explorer visit Africa & Arabia for the first time with three voyages ranging from 14 to 23 nights. Highlights include three overnight calls and a Cape Town roundtrip voyage. Discerning explorers will satisfy their hunt for adventure with compelling destinations such as Abidjan, Ivory Coast; Walvis Bay, Namibia; São Tomé, São Tomé and Príncipe; and Luanda, Angola.

Alaska

Seven Seas Splendor

Visiting Alaska for the first time, Seven Seas Splendor will sail 16 new voyages for a deep dive into the dramatic landscapes of the destination. From Icy Strait Point to Skagway to Juneau – Regent’s guests will have the opportunity to thoroughly explore the magnificent Last Frontier.

Asia

Seven Seas Splendor

The breadth and depth of Asia’s varied cultures will be on full display across 24 voyages ranging from eight to 19 nights. Six roundtrip Tokyo voyages will offer complete immersion into Japan’s vivid sights and sounds, while a festive holiday sailing will create a magical season to remember. Exciting ports of call include Hue/Da Nang, Vietnam; Bangkok (Laem Chabang), Thailand; and Hong Kong, China.

Australia & New Zealand

Seven Seas Explorer and [Seven Seas Mariner[®]](#)

Seven Seas Explorer and Seven Seas Mariner will sail six thoughtfully curated itineraries across Australia and New Zealand, ranging from 10 to 21 nights. Two voyages will feature cruising through the majestic Fjords of Doubtful, Dusky and Milford Sounds; while other ports of call include bucket list cities such as Sydney, Australia and Auckland, New Zealand.

Canada & New England

Seven Seas Prestige

2028 will herald the debut sailings for Seven Seas Prestige, Regent’s latest ship, in Canada & New England with five 11-night itineraries. Timed perfectly for the region’s colorful fall foliage, guests will take in dramatic landscapes and renowned seafood before returning to the unparalleled luxury of Regent’s newest ship.

Caribbean & Panama Canal

Seven Seas Prestige, [Seven Seas Grandeur[®]](#), and Seven Seas Mariner

Twenty-eight sailings, ranging from seven to 16 nights, will offer a variety of opportunities to explore the Caribbean and Panama Canal. Itineraries include 16 roundtrip voyages from Miami, Florida; three roundtrip voyages from Bridgetown, Barbados; one roundtrip sailing from Los Angeles, California; and one roundtrip sailing from Houston (Galveston), Texas.

Mediterranean

Seven Seas Grandeur, Seven Seas Explorer, Seven Seas Mariner and Seven Seas Voyager

Four ships of The World’s Most Luxurious Fleet[®] will sail 63 voyages across the Mediterranean ranging from seven to 21 nights. In a first for Seven Seas Voyager, this collection will include a quiet Mediterranean winter season starting November 2028, offering the opportunity to explore the region’s most beloved locales at a different time of year. Further highlights include a new port of call with the addition of Šibenik, Croatia.

Northern Europe

Seven Seas Prestige, Seven Seas Explorer, Seven Seas Voyager, and Seven Seas Mariner

Ranging from nine to 14 nights, Regent's 33 Northern Europe itineraries will uncover the richness of the region - from the majesty of Icelandic and Norwegian fjords to the romantic allure of France and the United Kingdom. The season will also include two new ports of call in Dundee, Scotland; and Oulu, Finland.

South America

Seven Seas Mariner

Seven Seas Mariner will sail three South American adventures ranging from eight to 25 nights. Intrepid explorers will enjoy incredible itineraries including a voyage along the Amazon River and a voyage to the Antarctic Peninsula. Extensive itineraries will showcase the color and flavor of the region's most stunning cities including the beloved cities of Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; Montevideo, Uruguay; and Buenos Aires, Argentina.

South Pacific

Seven Seas Explorer and Seven Seas Mariner

Across four voyages ranging from 18 to 21 nights, travelers will experience an adventure of a lifetime through the idyllic South Pacific. Multiple voyages will feature overnights in French Polynesia, while a holiday voyage will offer guests a jaw-dropping backdrop to the festive season. Each itinerary promises a wealth of discovery from the awe-inspiring Hanga Roa (Easter Island), Chile to the serene shores of Papeete, Tahiti.

Transoceanic Voyages

Seven Seas Prestige, Seven Seas Grandeur, and Seven Seas Mariner

During the 2028-2029 season, guests will have a range of opportunities to cross the Atlantic Ocean in unparalleled luxury. Among four transoceanic crossings is an unforgettable opportunity to sail on board Seven Seas Prestige as Regent's newest ship sails from London (Southampton) to Montreal, Canada. These extraordinary itineraries will also offer guests the chance to take full advantage of Regent's exceptional onboard activities with up to 10 sea days.

Grand Voyages

Seven Seas Splendor, Seven Seas Explorer, and Seven Seas Mariner

Ranging from 61 to 101 nights, Regent's extended Grand Voyages will trace the paths of history with three itineraries spanning four continents, with 14 overnight stays across destinations in Africa, Asia, Australia & New Zealand, and Europe.

2029 World Cruise

Seven Seas Mariner

Regent's 2029 World Cruise, Eras of Exploration, follows the great arcs of human discovery, from ancient empires to modern wonders. Sail the Amazon, journey south to Antarctica, and trace Polynesian routes across the South Pacific. Explore Australia and Southeast Asia, then cross the Indian Ocean to India, Arabia, the Nile, and the Mediterranean, concluding in Rome. Aboard the refreshed and renewed Seven Seas Mariner, enjoy Unrivaled Space at Sea[®], world-class cuisine and impeccable service with every detail taken care of.
