Sigma Labs Announces Upcoming Industry Events

SANTA FE, N.M., March 22, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Sigma Labs, Inc. (OTCQB:SGLBD) (OTCQB:SGLB) ("Sigma Labs" or the "Company"), a developer of advanced, in process, non-destructive quality inspection systems for metal-based additive manufacturing ("AM") and other advanced manufacturing technologies, today announced that management would participate in the following industry events this spring:

- The Additive Manufacturing Users Group (AMUG) Conference and Exhibition, April 3-7 in St. Louis (<http://www.additivemanufacturingusersgroup.com/events.htm>)
- The Rapid 2016 Conference, May 17-19 in Orlando (<http://www.rapid3devent.com>)

At these important upcoming events, the Company will showcase its contract 3D metal printing business as well as display its patented PrintRite3D® software applications. Customers and investors alike are welcome to stop by and meet with management.

The Additive Manufacturing Users Group, with over one thousand members, is focused on the advancement, education and support of additive manufacturing technology for rapid manufacturing and prototyping, while RAPID remains North America's largest, most comprehensive additive manufacturing event. RAPID is the key place to see the latest 3D innovations, network with industry experts, and explore the unlimited possibilities of how 3D technology can advance business.
