ResMed Inc. Completes $500M Private Placement Debt Offering

- Proceeds will be used to reduce amounts outstanding under existing revolving credit facility
- New senior notes will mature in 2026 and 2029

SAN DIEGO--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- ResMed Inc. (NYSE: RMD, ASX: RMD) announced today the successful pricing and closing of a private placement offering of $250,000,000 principal amount 3.24% senior notes due July 10, 2026, and $250,000,000 principal amount 3.45% senior notes due July 10, 2029.

Net proceeds from the offering will be approximately $498 million, after deducting estimated fees and expenses related to the offering. The net proceeds will be used to pay down current borrowings on ResMed's senior unsecured revolving credit facility. The notes are senior unsecured obligations of ResMed, and jointly and severally guaranteed by each Subsidiary Guarantor.

"We are pleased to complete this U.S. private placement offering on attractive terms," said Brett Sandercock, ResMed's chief financial officer. "The transaction significantly lengthens our average debt maturity profile and provides improved visibility on our long-term funding costs."

This private placement offering is exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. The notes were offered and sold to accredited investors in an exempt transaction not involving a public offering in accordance with section 4(2) of the Securities Act. Refer to ResMed's related SEC filing for more information regarding the notes, including a copy of the note purchase agreement.
