MicroVision Directors and Executive Team to Purchase Shares

REDMON, WA / ACCESSWIRE / November 14, 2023 /MicroVision, Inc. (Nasdaq:MVIS), a leader in MEMS-based solid-state automotive lidar technology and ADAS solutions, today announced its executive management team and several members of its Board of Directors have entered into private placement agreements to purchase shares of the Company's common stock. Pursuant to the agreements, the purchasers will acquire an aggregate of approximately $100,000 of MicroVision's common stock at $1.97 per share, yesterday's closing price as reported on The Nasdaq Stock Market.

"As the independent Chair of the Board, I have great confidence in MicroVision's management team and the Company's business strategy," stated Mr. Robert Carlile. "I believe MicroVision has a promising future ahead."

"These share purchases by members of the Board of Directors and the executive team reflect our collective optimism toward accomplishing our strategic and operational goals for MicroVision and our continued commitment to building and achieving long-term value for our stockholders," said Sumit Sharma, the Company's Chief Executive Officer. "We thank our stockholders for their support and belief in what we are building here at MicroVision."

About MicroVision

With over 350 employees and global presence in Redmond, Detroit, Hamburg, and Nuremberg, MicroVision is a pioneering company in MEMS-based laser beam scanning technology that integrates MEMS, lasers, optics, hardware, algorithms and machine learning software into its proprietary technology to address existing and emerging markets. The Company's integrated approach uses its proprietary technology to provide automotive lidar sensors and solutions for advanced driver-assistance systems (ADAS) and for non-automotive applications including industrial, smart infrastructure and robotics. The Company has been leveraging its experience building augmented reality micro-display engines, interactive display modules, and consumer lidar modules.
