Generation Income Properties (NASDAQ: GIPR), a real estate investment company that acquires and owns single-tenant retail, office, and industrial net-leased properties, announced today that it has appointed Allison Davies as its Chief Financial Officer effective February 28, 2022. Ms. Davies joins GIPR from Regency Centers (NASDAQ: REG), where she spent the last fifteen years positioning herself as a strong organizational leader with expertise in accounting and corporate finance in the public REIT space. In her most recent role with Regency, she led a team of approximately 65 employees and worked closely with the capital markets, underwriting, and acquisitions/dispositions teams. As CFO for GIPR, Ms. Davies will lead the accounting, corporate finance, and capital markets functions. She will work in concert with GIPR's executive management team and Board of Directors to establish GIPR as a best-in-class real estate investment trust (REIT).

David Sobelman, GIPR's President and CEO, commented, "We are thrilled to welcome Allison to the GIPR team! In addition to her technical expertise within REIT accounting, Allison embodies our core company values. Regency Centers has the reputation of having an exceptional REIT accounting and finance team, as well as an inclusive corporate culture, and we are eager to have her contributions help mold the future of GIPR."

Commenting on her new appointment, Ms. Davies stated, "I will forever cherish the experience and growth opportunities Regency Centers has given me, as well as the many strong relationships I have built over the past 15 years.
