MAXIMUS Foundation Provides Financial Support to Local Non-Profit Organizations

Grants Help Disadvantaged Populations across America

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- MAXIMUS (NYSE:MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that the MAXIMUS Foundation has distributed approximately $206,000 in grants to 87 local non-profit organizations as part of its most recent grant cycle.

The MAXIMUS Foundation is the philanthropic arm of MAXIMUS, providing financial assistance to many of the same disadvantaged populations and local communities that MAXIMUS serves as an operator of health and human services programs. The MAXIMUS Foundation is completely funded by MAXIMUS and its employees, and provides grants to local community organizations with programs and projects in the areas of child and youth development, health, and community development.

“We are proud to play a role in the programming and services these local community nonprofits provide around the country,” commented Dr. John Boyer, Chairman of the MAXIMUS Foundation. “The financial support we are able to provide these nonprofits is a testament to the giving spirit found in so many MAXIMUS employees.”
