MAXIMUS Foundation Provides Financial Support to More than 120 Nonprofit Organizations Serving Disadvantaged Populations

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that the MAXIMUS Foundation has distributed approximately $390,000 in grants to 121 nonprofit organizations in 22 states as part of its most recent grant cycle.

As the philanthropic arm of MAXIMUS, the Foundation extends the mission of the Company by identifying and awarding grants to partners with specialized expertise to deliver results within the same populations and communities served by the public programs the Company operates. The MAXIMUS Foundation is completely funded by MAXIMUS and its employees, and provides grants to local community organizations with programs and projects in the areas of child and youth development, health and community development.

“The MAXIMUS Foundation provides a strategic way for employees and the Company to give back to and engage with our communities, carefully selecting nonprofit partners who have the expertise to enhance our communities and quality of life,” commented Dr. John Boyer, Chairman of the MAXIMUS Foundation. “The diverse array of our grantees represents the diverse nature of the Company and we are privileged to have the opportunity to support their admirable work.”
