MAXIMUS Board of Directors Member Included in Savoy's Most Influential Black Corporate Directors of 2017

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that Wellington E. Webb, a member of the Company's Board of Directors, was included in Savoy Magazine's Most Influential Black Corporate Directors edition. Mr. Webb was recognized among other executives, influencers and achievers contributing leadership to corporate boards.

A long-standing member of the MAXIMUS Board of Directors, Mr. Webb brings perspective and expertise developed over many years of public service. His public career began in 1972 when he was elected to the Colorado House of Representatives. He then served at the state, local, and federal levels of government in several capacities, including Denver City Auditor, Executive Director of the Colorado Department of Regulatory Agencies, and Regional Director of the U.S. Department of Health Education and Welfare. After serving three terms as Mayor of the City and County of Denver, Colorado from 1991 to 2003, Mr. Webb now serves as President of Webb Group International, an economic development and public relations consulting firm.

"We offer our congratulations to Wellington on this notable recognition and thank him for his leadership and numerous, important contributions to our Board of Directors, leading to the successful growth of MAXIMUS," commented Peter Pond, Chairman of the Board of Directors of MAXIMUS.

"We continue to be inspired by these accomplished executives, their distinguished careers and the corporations that demonstrate inclusive board composition in Savoy," commented L.P. Green, II, CEO and Publisher of Savoy Magazine.
