MAXIMUS to Present at the National Association for Medicaid Program Integrity Conference on Implementing Effective Community Engagement

RESTON, Va.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- MAXIMUS (NYSE: MMS), a leading provider of government services worldwide, announced today that it will be a featured presenter at the 35th Annual National Association for Medicaid Program Integrity (NAMPI) Conference.

John P. Crouse, Vice President of Health Services at MAXIMUS and expert in provider management and program integrity, will lead a session titled “Work Requirements and Community Engagement.” The discussion will highlight what meaningful community engagement looks like beyond beneficiary attestation, and how to manage transitional populations and implement a sustainable approach to long-term compliance.

“State programs are challenged with obtaining accurate verification documents effectively from transitional populations,” commented Mr. Crouse. “By implementing digital tools that facilitate the collection process and empower members to self-serve, states can achieve their workforce enablement goals and decrease program costs.”

NAMPI encompasses all 50 states and has members from various professional disciplines, working together to focus on limiting fraud and abuse in the National Medical Assistance Program. The NAMPI Conference will take place August 25-28, 2019 at the Atlanta Marriott Marquis in Atlanta, Georgia (nampi.net).
