Second Quarter 2012 Operating Results

For the second quarter of 2012, total investment income was $20.8 million, a 29% increase over the $16.1 million of total investment income for the corresponding period of 2011. This comparable period increase was principally attributable to a $4.7 million increase in interest income from higher average levels of portfolio debt investments, partially offset by a $0.1 million decrease in dividend income from portfolio equity investments primarily due to a $0.3 million special dividend from one portfolio equity investment received in the second quarter of 2011. The increase in investment income included a $0.4 million increase in investment income associated with higher levels of accelerated prepayment activity for certain portfolio debt investments and marketable securities investments in comparison to the second quarter of 2011.

The $0.6 million of share-based compensation expense recognized during the second quarter of 2012 related to non-cash amortization expense for restricted share grants. Cash operating expenses (total operating expenses excluding non-cash, share-based compensation expense) increased to $7.4 million in the second quarter of 2012 from $6.1 million in the corresponding period of 2011. This comparable period increase in operating expenses was principally attributable to (i) higher interest expense of $0.9 million as a result of increased borrowing activity under Main Street's credit facility (the "Credit Facility") and the issuance of an additional $10 million in Small Business Investment Company ("SBIC") debentures subsequent to June 30, 2011 and (ii) higher compensation and other operating expenses of $0.4 million related to the increases in investment income and the investment portfolio compared to the corresponding period of 2011. The ratio of total operating expenses, excluding interest expense, as a percentage of average total assets for the three months ended June 30, 2012 was 1.9% on an annualized basis, compared to 2.3% on an annualized basis for the corresponding period of 2011.

Distributable net investment income, which is net investment income before non-cash, share-based compensation expense, increased 33% to $13.4 million, or $0.49 per share, in the second quarter of 2012 compared with $10.1

million, or $0.43 per share, in the corresponding period of 2011. ^{(1) (2)} The increase in distributable net investment income was primarily due to the higher level of total investment income partially offset by higher interest and other operating expenses, due to the changes discussed above. Distributable net investment income on a per share basis for the second quarter of 2012 reflects (i) an increase of approximately $0.01 per share from the comparable period in 2011 in investment income attributable to higher levels of accelerated prepayment activity for certain portfolio debt investments and marketable securities investments and (ii) a greater number of average shares outstanding compared to the corresponding period in 2011 primarily due to the October 2011 and June 2012 follow-on stock offerings.

Distributable net realized income, which is net realized income before non-cash, share-based compensation expense, decreased 2% to $10.1 million, or $0.37 per share, in the second quarter of 2012 compared with distributable net realized income of $10.3 million, or $0.44 per share, in the corresponding period of 2011. ^{(1) (2)} This decrease was primarily attributable to a $3.4 million realized loss during the second quarter of 2012 on the full exit of a lower middle market ("LMM") portfolio investment that had been fully impaired in prior periods, partially offset by the higher level of total distributable net investment income in the second quarter of 2012 compared to the corresponding period of 2011.

The net increase in net assets resulting from operations attributable to common stock was $24.2 million, or $0.88 per share, in the second quarter of 2012, representing an increase of 37% compared with $17.6 million, or $0.77 per share, in the corresponding period of 2011. ⁽²⁾ The $15.7 million net change in unrealized appreciation during the second quarter of 2012 was principally attributable to (i) unrealized appreciation on 21 LMM portfolio investments totaling $14.9 million, partially offset by unrealized depreciation on 5 LMM portfolio investments totaling $1.4 million, (ii) $1.1 million of net unrealized appreciation on the middle market investment portfolio, (iii) $0.5 million of net unrealized appreciation on the other portfolio investments and marketable securities and idle funds investments, (iv) accounting reversals of net unrealized depreciation in the amount of $2.4 million related to portfolio investment exits and exits of marketable securities and idle funds investments, and (v) $1.8 million of net unrealized depreciation attributable to SBIC debentures held by its wholly-owned subsidiary Main Street Capital II, LP. For the second quarter of 2012, Main Street also recognized a net income tax provision of $1.0 million related to deferred taxes of $0.6 million on net unrealized appreciation of equity investments held in its taxable subsidiaries and other taxes of $0.4 million primarily related to accruals for excise tax on its estimated spillover taxable income in 2012 and other taxes.

The Credit Facility will mature in September 2014, although the Credit Facility contains two, one year extension options which could extend the maturity to September 2016. (1) Distributable net investment income and distributable net realized income are net investment income and net realized income, respectively, as determined in accordance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles, or GAAP, excluding the impact of share-based compensation expense which is non-cash in nature. Main Street believes presenting distributable net investment income, distributable net realized income, and related per share measures is useful and appropriate supplemental disclosure for analyzing its financial performance since share-based compensation does not require settlement in cash. However, distributable net investment income and distributable net realized income are non-GAAP measures and should not be considered as a replacement for net investment income, net realized income, and other earnings measures presented in accordance with GAAP. Instead, distributable net investment income and distributable net realized income should be reviewed only in connection with such GAAP measures in analyzing Main Street's financial performance. A reconciliation of net investment income and net realized income in accordance with GAAP to distributable net investment income and distributable net realized income is detailed in the financial tables included with this press release.

(2) Per share amounts for the second quarter of 2011 exclude the earnings that were attributable to the remaining noncontrolling equity interest in Main Street Capital II, LP prior to Main Street's acquisition of such noncontrolling equity interests during the first quarter of 2012.

(3) All LMM portfolio information is calculated exclusive of Main Street's middle market portfolio investments, other portfolio investments, marketable securities and idle funds investments, and Main Street's investment in Main Street Capital Partners, LLC, the wholly owned Investment Manager. LMM portfolio company financial information has not been independently verified by Main Street.

(4) Weighted average annual effective yield includes amortization of deferred debt origination fees and accretion of original issue discount, but excludes any liquidation fees payable upon repayment and any debt investments on non-accrual status.

(5) Excludes one investment that is in the "rapid growth" phase of its business life cycle with high customer acquisition costs.

(6) All middle market portfolio information is calculated exclusive of Main Street's LMM portfolio investments, other portfolio investments, marketable securities and idle funds investments, and Main Street's investment in Main Street Capital Partners, LLC, the wholly owned Investment Manager.
