

Rand Capital Provides Follow-on Investment in GENICON, Medical Device Manufacturer

Rand is largest investor in $6.6 million capital raise and refinancing

BUFFALO, NY -- (Marketwired) -- 07/20/17 -- Rand Capital Corporation (NASDAQ: RAND) ("Rand"), a venture capital company which invests in growth businesses with unique product, service or technology concepts, announced that it recently invested $3 million, partnering with Advantage Capital and Coastal Enterprises in a $6.6 million capital raise and refinancing package for GENICON, Inc. As part of the capital transaction, $2 million of previously outstanding promissory notes payable to Rand were converted into a new term loan, and Rand infused an additional $1 million. GENICON is recognized as an emerging leader in the design, production and distribution of patented surgical instrumentation focused exclusively on laparoscopic, or minimally invasive, surgery. This capital transaction increases Rand's total investment in GENICON to $4 million, consisting of $1 million of Series B Preferred Shares acquired in 2015 and the new $3 million term loan. GENICON now represents the largest investment in the Rand portfolio.

Gary W. Haberland, Founder, President and Chief Executive Officer of GENICON, commented, "We have been diligently developing new products to serve the growing needs of our global marketplace. This includes two recently introduced products: 1) the aquas powerflow is a battery powered suction irrigation product which we believe will revolutionize surgical irrigation, and 2) the a li-gator disposable clip applier ergonomically facilitates wound closure using titanium clips. We appreciate the support of our investors who have provided us capital to fund tooling for such new product lines as well as expand our production capacity, vertically integrating certain product lines to further enhance our quality and reduce our costs."

Daniel P. Penberthy, Rand's Executive Vice President, added, "GENICON is one of the rising stars within our portfolio. With its innovative approach to providing healthcare surgical solutions, the company continues to grow at a double digit pace. With each step in GENICON's growth curve, Rand was pleased to support the business with the needed capital to continue to develop new products and execute on its marketing, manufacturing and sales efforts. Rand has now made six investments in GENICON which have assisted the company in developing a full suite of unique and highly differentiated medical device products that are currently distributed to the surgical community that spans more than 44 countries around the world. We appreciate the opportunity to invest alongside Advantage Capital and Coastal Enterprises as GENICON grows and matures."
