About Eric Church

Eric Church's most recent critically acclaimed and chart-topping project, his three-part Heart & Soul, is available everywhere now. Featuring the results of a marathon session during which he spent nearly a month writing and recording a song per day while sequestered in rural North Carolina, the project features his latest Gold-certified No. 1 "Hell of a View" and recent Top 5 hit "Heart On Fire" as well as current single "Doing Life With Me."

Just as unique as Church's approach to recording and releasing music is his tenacity on the road. He recently wrapped his 55-city The Gather Again Tour, visiting full-capacity arenas for an in-the-round show on the Billboard Music Awards Top Country Tour, in addition to a recent headlining spot alongside George Strait and Metallica during the ATLIVE festival at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and his own one-of-a-kind headlining stadium shows at Milwaukee's American Family Field and Minneapolis's U.S. Bank Stadium. Church also took to the field at Tampa Bay's Raymond James Stadium in 2021 to perform the National Anthem ahead of Super Bowl LV, and during 2019's Double Down Tour he played back-to-back nights of two unique shows in each market sans opening act, giving every city's fans six-plus hours of his iconic music. The tour also featured a massive stop at Nissan Stadium in Nashville, where he broke the venue's concert attendance record with more than 56,000 fans in attendance and became the first artist to sell out the venue with a solo lineup.

A seven-time ACM Award winner, four-time CMA Award winner (including the 2020 award for Entertainer of the Year) and 10-time GRAMMY nominee, Church has amassed a passionate fanbase around the globe known as the Church Choir as well as a critically acclaimed catalog of music. His previous project, the Gold-certified Desperate Man, earned a GRAMMY nomination for Best Country Album (his third nod in the category). Prior releases include the Platinum-certified Sinners Like Me ("How 'Bout You," "Guys Like Me"), Carolina ("Smoke a Little Smoke," "Love Your Love the Most") and Mr. Misunderstood ("Record Year," "Round Here Buzz"), the Double-Platinum certified The Outsiders ("Like a Wrecking Ball," "Talladega") and the 3x Platinum-certified Chief ("Springsteen," "Drink In My Hand"), as well as 30 Gold, Platinum and multi-Platinum certified singles.
