Premier League Soccer Kicks Off on SiriusXM August 5

Subscribers nationwide get access to multiple live matches every week on SiriusXM FC and the SXM App

SiriusXM and talkSPORT ink extension of rights agreement making Premier League matches available to SiriusXM subscribers through 2024-2025 season

NEW YORK – August 4, 2022 – SiriusXM will kick off its coverage of the 2022-2023 Premier League soccer season this Friday, August 5, and will air multiple Premier League matches each week throughout the season on the SiriusXM FC channel and the SXM App.

SiriusXM airs talkSPORT's live play-by-play broadcasts of Premier League matches. SiriusXM and talkSPORT recently agreed to a multiyear extension of their agreement that will allow SiriusXM to deliver Premier League matches, as well as FA Cup matches and more, to its subscribers through the 2024-2025 season.

SiriusXM listeners will have access to live matches as the 20 Premier League clubs compete for the coveted league title, which will be awarded to the leader in the points standings at season's end in May.

The opening weekend schedule of Premier League matches on SiriusXM FC channel 157 features (all times ET):

Friday, August 5

3:00 pm: Crystal Palace v. Arsenal

Saturday, August 6

7:30 am: Fulham v. Liverpool

10:00 am: Tottenham v. Southampton

12:30 pm: Everton v. Chelsea

Sunday, August 7

9:00 am: Manchester United v. Brighton

11:30 am: West Ham v. Manchester City

SiriusXM subscribers will have access to every match played by one of the Premier League's "Big Six" – Arsenal, Chelsea, Liverpool, Manchester City, Manchester United and Tottenham. In the event two or more of these teams are playing at the same time, matches will air on SiriusXM FC or one of SiriusXM's dedicated play-by-play channels.
