Michael's to Hire 10,000 Seasonal Team Members to Help Fuel the Joy of Creating and Celebrating This Holiday Season

National Hiring Day event to take place on September 6 across stores in the U.S. and Canada

IRVING, Texas, Sept. 5, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- Michael's, the leading destination for creating and celebrating in North America, today announced plans to hire more than 10,000 seasonal positions to help customers celebrate the holiday season.

On Saturday, September 6, Michael's will host hiring events across stores in the U.S. and Canada from 12pm – 4pm local time. Candidates are welcome to apply in advance online or in person during the in-store events, where interviews for qualified candidates will also take place.

"At Michael's, creativity is at the heart of everything we do, and it starts with our Team Members," said Nicholas Bertram, President and Chief Operating Officer at Michael's. "We are thrilled to welcome new Team Members to Michael's this holiday season to fuel the joy of creating and celebrating in every community we serve."

In addition to hiring 10,000 seasonal Team Members, Michael's will also offer current Team Members opportunities to work extra hours throughout the holiday season.

Michael's prioritizes the wellbeing of its teams by providing benefits such as competitive wages, flexible hours and a generous 30% discount, all in a supportive environment that fosters growth and development for Team Members. Last year, Michael's converted more than 50% of seasonal in-store positions into regular roles following the holidays. Many of these Team Members go on to become members of our store management or support center teams, creating ample opportunity for professional growth that allows passion for creativity to flourish.

Candidates interested in seasonal positions can learn more in stores during the upcoming hiring events or apply online at Careers.Michaels.com.
