XM host and distinguished radio personality Mike Marrone will conduct the one-on-one interview with the renowned songwriter. The interview coincides with the release of Browne's new record, Time the Conqueror, his first album of new material in six years. Time the Conqueror was released on Tuesday, September 23.

During the in-depth interview, Browne will be sharing his thoughts on various artists who have influenced him throughout his career, including David Crosby, Graham Nash, The Beatles and Kris Kristofferson. Browne will also share stories about life in New York City in the 1960s and Southern California in the 1970s. In addition, Songlines will include Browne revealing behind-the-scenes details of the making of Running on Empty.

The special interview will also include tracks off Browne's new record as well as music from his friends and influences. Additionally, Browne will personally introduce songs and share anecdotes and individual experiences he has had with them.

XM's The Loft features an intelligent and eclectic mix of songs by singers, songwriters and beyond. The Loft listeners are exposed to everything from Jackson Browne, Joni Mitchell and Neil Young to newer artists like Damien Rice, Calexico and Ryan Adams, to name just a microscopic part of the station's enormous library.
