

MARA Holdings, Inc. Announces $1.0 Billion Repurchase of 0.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2030 and 2031 and Sale of 15,133 Bitcoin

Miami, FL, March 26, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- MARA Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ: MARA) ("MARA" or the "Company"), a leading digital energy and infrastructure company, today announced that it has entered into privately negotiated repurchase agreements with certain holders of its outstanding 0.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2030 (the "2030 Notes") and 0.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2031 (the "2031 Notes" and, together with the 2030 Notes, the "Notes") to repurchase approximately $367.5 million in aggregate principal amount of the 2030 Notes for an aggregate cash repurchase price of approximately $322.9 million and approximately $633.4 million in aggregate principal amount of the 2031 Notes for an aggregate cash repurchase price of approximately $589.9 million (the "notes repurchase transactions"). The repurchases of the 2030 Notes and the 2031 Notes are expected to close on March 30, 2026 and March 31, 2026, respectively, subject to the satisfaction of customary closing conditions.

The notes repurchase transactions are expected to capture approximately $88.1 million in value through cash savings before transaction costs for the Company, representing an approximate discount of 9% to par value, and will reduce outstanding indebtedness and potential future dilution associated with the conversion feature of the Notes. The transactions are also expected to reduce the Company's outstanding convertible indebtedness by approximately 30%. Following the notes repurchase transactions, an aggregate of $632.5 million principal amount of the 2030 Notes and an aggregate of $291.6 million principal amount of the 2031 Notes will remain outstanding.

The Company also announced today that, between March 4 and March 25, 2026, it sold 15,133 bitcoin for an aggregate sale price of approximately $1.1 billion. The Company expects to use the proceeds from the bitcoin sales to fund the notes repurchase transactions, with the remainder available for general corporate purposes.

"Our decision to sell a portion of our bitcoin holdings reflects a strategic capital allocation move designed to strengthen our balance sheet and position the company for long-term growth. By retiring over $1 billion of face value debt at a discount, we captured approximately $88 million in value that would otherwise have been lost, reduced potential shareholder dilution, and leveraged our bitcoin holdings to meaningfully de-lever the balance sheet on our terms. This transaction enhances financial flexibility and increases strategic optionality as we expand beyond pure-play bitcoin mining into digital energy and AI/HPC infrastructure," said Fred Thiel, MARA's chairman and chief executive officer.

The following table presents the Company's aggregate principal amount of convertible note indebtedness as of December 31, 2025 before and after giving effect to the notes repurchase transactions.

Convertible Notes	Amount outstanding as of December 31, 2025	Amount outstanding after giving effect to the notes repurchase transactions
2030 Notes	$1,000,000,000	$632,540,000
2031 Notes	$925,000,000	$291,584,000
1.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2026	$48,077,000	$48,077,000
2.125% Convertible Senior Notes due 2031	$300,000,000	$300,000,000
0.00% Convertible Senior Notes due 2032	$1,025,000,000	$1,025,000,000
Total	$3,298,077,000	$2,297,201,000
