NETSOL Unveils the Transcend Platform to Provide Customers with a Unified Digital Retail and Asset Finance Solution

New AI-powered platform to transform the auto and equipment buying, leasing and financing experience

ENCINO, Calif., Oct. 08, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- NETSOL Technologies, Inc. (Nasdaq: NTWK), the global leader in delivering state-of-the-art solutions for the asset finance and leasing industry, announced today its new unified Transcend Platform – an AI-powered digital retail and asset finance solution for automotive and equipment OEMs, auto captives, commercial lenders, dealers, brokers and financial institutions. The new NETSOL Transcend Platform offers a robust set of products and solutions under one umbrella, showcasing the company's commitment to harnessing the transformative potential of Artificial Intelligence (AI).

“As we have transitioned into the next era of technology with AI at the forefront, it was imperative for NETSOL to redefine our product suite to better meet the evolving demands of our clients,” said Najeeb Ghauri, Founder and CEO of NETSOL Technologies Inc. “This transformative platform marks a significant milestone for the company and embodies our vision for a more interconnected, intelligent and user-friendly approach to technology for the global financial services industry.”

The Transcend Platform signifies NETSOL’s transformation and adoption of AI technologies for asset finance companies and OEMs. This comprehensive platform addresses various use cases, from asset, auto and equipment finance and leasing technology to innovative digital retail solutions facilitating complex purchasing journeys. NETSOL customers like MINI USA—a subsidiary of BMW—have had significant success with the platform, achieving a 23% increase in average conversion rate from lead to sales over three years.

"At MINI, we decided it was time to create an end-to-end purchasing and finance journey for the consumer and it was important to create something more than a lead generator to facilitate the complete transaction for any MINI customer, any place, any time," said Mike Peyton, Chief Motorer and Vice-President of MINI of the Americas. "Our partnership with NETSOL has enabled us not only to catch up with industry leaders but also to set new benchmarks in digital auto-retail, which the usual suspects in the industry could not provide."

Key features of the Transcend Platform:

Transcend Retail

Revolutionize auto and equipment retail with a fully digital, omnichannel, and seamlessly integrated platform that powers the entire customer journey and lifecycle. From purchasing, financing, and originations to servicing, end-of-term, and remarketing, Transcend Retail offers advanced retail, mobility, and self-service solutions that keep OEMs and dealerships at the cutting edge of consumer expectations.

Transcend Finance

Streamlines finance and leasing operations with a comprehensive solution for originations, servicing and wholesale finance. Transcend Finance empowers finance and leasing companies alongside various financial institutions with end-to-end visibility and control, ensuring seamless workflows and accelerated business outcomes.

Transcend Marketplace

The go-to platform for modular, API-first solutions that address every aspect of finance and leasing.
