ATLANTA, April 22, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Equifax Inc. (NYSE: EFX) today announced financial results for the quarter ended March 31, 2015.

"All four business units exceeded our expectations with their first quarter performance," said Richard F. Smith, Equifax's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. "While the environments and economies in which we operate continue to present challenges, we are very focused on our strategic objectives and we have a very strong operating discipline. At this point, our optimism for the year has increased from what it was when we first entered it."

Financial Results Summary

The company reported revenue of $651.8 million in the first quarter of 2015, a 12 percent increase from the first quarter of 2014 on a reported basis and 14 percent in local currency. Adjusted EPS attributable to Equifax was $1.07, up 20 percent from the first quarter of 2014, after adjusting for a charge related predominantly to the realignment of internal resources, as well as acquisition-related amortization expense. Diluted EPS attributable to Equifax was $0.73, up 9 percent from the first quarter of 2014. Adjusted operating margin was 27.2 percent, up 120 points from the first quarter of 2014, after adjusting for a charge related predominantly to the realignment of internal resources. Operating margin was 23.7 percent, down 230 basis points from the first quarter of 2014.

Significant revenue growth across many verticals, including home equity lending, drove outperformance in USIS

- Online Information Solutions revenue was $221.9 million, up 15 percent from the first quarter of 2014.
- Mortgage Solutions revenue was $31.3 million, up 28 percent from the first quarter of 2014.

Personal Solutions delivered solid growth and operating margin while undertaking a strategic transformation

- Revenue was $65.6 million, a 4 percent increase from the first quarter of 2014 and up 6 percent on a local currency basis.
- Operating margin was 27.4 percent compared to 28.5 percent in the first quarter of 2014.

Second Quarter 2015 and Full Year 2015 Outlook

For the second quarter, we expect revenue between $655 and $665 million, which is up approximately 10% to 12% over Q2 2014, on a local currency basis. Adjusted EPS, is expected to be between $1.09 and $1.11, up 16% to 18% year-over-year, on a local currency basis. Foreign exchange is expected to negatively impact revenue growth by 3% and Adjusted EPS by $0.02.

For the full year, based on the current level of domestic and international business activity, we anticipate revenue between $2.585 billion and $2.635 billion, and Adjusted EPS between $4.28 and $4.35. Given the recent strength of the US dollar, at current exchange rates, we expect foreign currency to negatively impact 2015 revenue growth by 3%, and Adjusted EPS by approximately $0.09. On a local currency basis, revenue is expected to grow 9% to 11% in 2015. On a local currency basis, Adjusted EPS is expected to grow 13% to 14%.

Non-GAAP Financial Measures

This earnings release presents operating margin and diluted EPS attributable to Equifax which (to the extent noted above for different periods) excludes acquisition-related amortization expense, the realignment of internal resources, and the adjustment of redeemable noncontrolling interest that reflects a redemption value in excess of fair value. These are important financial measures for Equifax but are not financial measures as defined by GAAP.

These non-GAAP financial measures should be reviewed in conjunction with the relevant GAAP financial measures and are not presented as an alternative measure of net income or EPS as determined in accordance with GAAP.

Reconciliations of these non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable GAAP financial measures and related notes are presented in the Q&A. This information can also be found under "Investor Relations/GAAP/Non-GAAP Measures" on our website at www.equifax.com.

Forward-Looking Statements

This release contains forward-looking statements or forward-looking information. These statements can be identified by expressions of belief, expectation or intention, as well as statements that are not historical fact. These statements are based on certain factors and assumptions including with respect to foreign exchange rates, expected growth, results of operations, performance, business prospects and opportunities and effective tax rates. While the company believes these factors and assumptions to be reasonable based on information currently available, they may prove to be incorrect.

Several factors could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements, including, but not limited to actions taken by us, including restructuring or strategic initiatives (including capital investments or asset acquisitions or dispositions), as well as from developments beyond our control, including, but not limited to, changes in worldwide and U.S. economic conditions that materially impact consumer spending, consumer debt and employment and the demand for Equifax's products and services. Other risk factors include adverse or uncertain economic conditions and changes in credit and financial markets; risks relating to illegal third party efforts to access data or other cybersecurity or physical security breaches; changes in, and the effects of, laws and regulations and government policies governing our business, including, without limitation, our examination and supervision by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB"), a federal agency that holds primary responsibility for the regulation of consumer protection with respect to financial products and services in the U.S., supervision by the U.K. Financial Conduct Authority of our debt collections services and core credit reporting businesses in the U.K. (including the requirement that we apply for, by June 30, 2015 and March 31, 2016, respectively, and obtain certain licenses and authorizations to carry on these businesses); federal or state responses to identity theft concerns; potential adverse developments in new and pending legal proceedings or government investigations, including investigations or examinations undertaken by the CFPB, State Attorneys General or other governmental agencies; our ability to successfully develop and market new products and services, respond to pricing and other competitive pressures, complete and integrate acquisitions and other investments and achieve targeted cost efficiencies; timing and amount of capital expenditures; changes in capital markets and corresponding effects on the company's investments and benefit plan obligations; foreign currency exchange rates and earnings repatriation limitations; and the decisions of taxing authorities, all of which could affect our effective tax rates. A summary of additional risks and uncertainties can be found in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2014, including without limitation under the captions "Item 1. Business -- Governmental Regulation" and "-- Forward-Looking Statements" and "Item 1A. Risk Factors," and in our other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Forward-looking statements are given only as at the date of this release and the company disclaims any obligation to update or revise the forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as required by law.

Notes to Reconciliations of Non-GAAP Financial Measures to the Comparable GAAP Financial Measures

Charge related to the realignment of internal resources and other- During the first quarter of 2015, we recorded a charge of $23.4 million ($14.9 million, net of tax). This charge was predominantly related to the realignment of our internal resources to support the Company's strategic objectives and increase the integration of our global operations. Management believes excluding this charge from certain financial results provides meaningful supplemental information regarding our financial results for the three months ended March 31, 2015, as compared to the corresponding period in 2014, since a charge of such an amount is not comparable among the periods. This is consistent with how our management reviews and assesses Equifax's historical performance and is useful when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.

Diluted EPS attributable to Equifax, adjusted for the charge related to the realignment of internal resources, acquisition-related amortization expense, net of tax, and the adjustment of redeemable noncontrolling interest that reflects a redemption value in excess of fair value - We calculate this financial measure by excluding the impact of acquisition-related amortization expense and including a benefit to reflect the material cash income tax savings resulting from the income tax deductibility of amortization for certain acquired intangibles. These financial measures are not prepared in conformity with GAAP. Management believes excluding the impact of amortization expense is useful because excluding acquisition-related amortization, and other items that are not comparable, allows investors to evaluate our performance for different periods on a more comparable basis. Certain acquired intangibles result in material cash income tax savings which are not reflected in earnings. Management believes that including a benefit to reflect the cash income tax savings is useful as it allows investors to better value Equifax. Management makes these adjustments to earnings when measuring profitability, evaluating performance trends, setting performance objectives and calculating our return on invested capital.

Redeemable noncontrolling interest adjustment - During the first quarter of 2015, there was not an adjustment of redeemable noncontrolling interest as the redemption value is not in excess of fair value. Management believes excluding this charge is useful as it allows investors to evaluate our performance for different periods on a more comparable basis. Management makes these adjustments to net income when measuring profitability, evaluating performance trends, setting performance objectives and calculating our return on invested capital. This is consistent with how management reviews and assesses Equifax's historical performance and is useful when planning, forecasting and analyzing future periods.
