Legacy Education Announces Six-Year Reaccreditation Grant for Integrity College of Health from ABHES

LANCASTER, Calif., Feb. 17, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Legacy Education Inc. ("Legacy Education" or the "Company") (NYSE American: LGCY), a leading provider of career education healthcare programs, proudly announces that Integrity College of Health (ICH) has received a six-year grant of reaccreditation from the Accrediting Bureau of Health Education Schools (ABHES).

The six-year grant represents the longest reaccreditation term awarded by ABHES and reflects confidence in ICH's academic quality, institutional effectiveness, and regulatory compliance.

This determination affirms the strength of ICH's academic delivery, student outcomes, and operational standards. It also underscores the disciplined work of faculty, staff, and campus leadership in maintaining high standards in curriculum development, clinical training, student support services, and continuous improvement.

"We are incredibly proud of our team at Integrity College of Health," said Ragheb Milad, Chief Academic Officer of Legacy Education. "Receiving the maximum six-year reaccreditation term from ABHES is a powerful validation of our academic model, our student-centered culture, and our unwavering commitment to compliance and quality. This recognition reflects the dedication of our faculty and campus teams who work every day to prepare students for meaningful careers in healthcare."

ICH, located in Pasadena, California, was founded in 2007 and offers seven career-focused healthcare training programs, including Medical Assisting, Medical Billing and Coding, Diagnostic Medical Sonography, Sterile Processing Technician, Veterinary Assistant, Vocational Nursing, and an RN-BSN Bachelor of Science degree designed for working registered nurses to advance their careers.
