First Quarter 2008 Operating Results

Total investment income increased 67% to $4.0 million in the first quarter of 2008 compared with $2.4 million in the corresponding period of 2007. This comparable period increase was principally attributable to (i) greater interest income on higher average levels of portfolio debt investments, (ii) interest income earned on the remaining net proceeds from the October 2007 initial public offering (the "IPO"), (iii) greater fee income recognized from portfolio activity, and (iv) greater dividend income from portfolio equity investments.

Net investment income increased 114% to $2.5 million, or $0.28 per common share, in the first quarter of 2008 compared with $1.2 million in the corresponding period of 2007. This comparable period increase was principally attributable to higher levels of total investment income, partially offset by increased operating expenses.

Total operating expenses increased $0.3 million, or 23%, in the first quarter of 2008 compared with the corresponding period in 2007 due to higher levels of general and administrative expenses associated with operating as a publicly traded entity and greater interest expense. The increase in general and administrative expenses during the first quarter of 2008 included accounting and legal expenses related to its fiscal 2007 regulatory filings, as well as higher compensation-related expenses principally due to the hiring of several administrative and transaction personnel subsequent to Main Street's IPO.

Net realized income increased 63% to $3.1 million, or $0.35 per common share, in the first quarter of 2008 compared with $1.9 million in the corresponding period of 2007. This comparable period increase was principally attributable to a higher level of net investment income.

The net increase in net assets increased 80% to $3.2 million, or $0.36 per common share, in the first quarter of 2008 compared with $1.8 million in the corresponding period of 2007. The $0.3 million net change in unrealized appreciation from investments during the first quarter of 2008 was attributable to (i) a reduction for the accounting reclassification of approximately $0.6 million in previously recognized unrealized appreciation into realized gains during the quarter, (ii) $3.8 million in unrealized appreciation recognized on seven portfolio investments, partially offset by $3.4 million in unrealized depreciation recognized on four portfolio investments, (iii) $0.7 million in unrealized appreciation adjustments to the fair value of portfolio debt investments based upon the adoption of Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, and (iv) $0.2 million in unrealized depreciation attributable to Main Street's investment in its affiliated investment manager. During the first quarter of 2008, Main Street also recognized $0.3 million of income tax expense principally related to deferred taxes on the net change in unrealized appreciation for portfolio investments held by Main Street's wholly owned taxable subsidiary.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

As of March 31, 2008, Main Street had approximately $74 million of total cash and cash equivalents. The cash and cash equivalents at March 31, 2008 include $25 million of cash proceeds from borrowings under Main Street's U.S. Treasury-based line of credit facility (the "Treasury Line of Credit"). Consistent with prior estimates, Main Street continues to project that it will be able to fund its investment activities through 2008 without requiring new capital. However, this projection will be impacted by, among other things, the pace of investment originations and investment redemptions, the level of cash flow from operations and cash flow from realized gains, and the level of dividends paid in cash.

As of March 31, 2008, Main Street had $55 million of SBIC debenture leverage outstanding. The SBIC debenture leverage bears an annual weighted average interest rate of 5.8%, payable semiannually, and matures ten years from original issuance. As of March 31, 2008, Main Street had a debt to equity ratio of 0.48 to 1.0 excluding borrowings under the Treasury Line of Credit (or 0.69 to 1.0 including borrowings under the Treasury Line of Credit).

Key Portfolio Statistics (all as of March 31, 2008)(see Note 1)

Main Street had debt and equity investments in 29 portfolio companies with the average portfolio investment at cost equaling less than 4% of total portfolio investments and less than 3% of total assets.

Approximately 87% of Main Street's portfolio investments at cost were in the form of secured debt investments, and approximately 95% of Main Street's debt investments were secured by first priority liens on the assets of portfolio companies. The annual weighted average effective yield on the Main Street debt investments held at March 31, 2008 was 14.1%, including amortization of deferred debt origination fees and accretion of original issue discount but excluding any debt investments on non-accrual status. Approximately 85% of Main Street's debt investments at cost were structured at fixed interest rates with cash interest payments generally due monthly.

Based on information provided by our portfolio companies, which we have not independently verified, our portfolio companies had a weighted average net debt (interest-bearing debt less cash and cash equivalents) to EBITDA (Earnings Before Interest, Taxes, Depreciation and Amortization) ratio of approximately 3.0 to 1.0 and a total EBITDA to interest expense ratio of approximately 2.4 to 1.0.(see Note 2) Excluding all debt that was junior in priority to Main Street's debt position, these ratios were approximately 2.6 to 1.0 and 3.0 to 1.0, respectively.(see Note 2)

Main Street had equity ownership in approximately 86% of its portfolio companies and the average fully diluted equity ownership in those portfolio companies was approximately 25%.

Based upon Main Street's internal investment rating system, with a rating of "1" being the highest and a rating of "5" being the lowest, the weighted average investment rating for Main Street's portfolio was 2.1. At March 31, 2008, Main Street had two investments on non-accrual status representing 2.4% of its total investment portfolio fair value.

Included at the end of this press release is a summary table which presents a sequential quarterly comparison of key portfolio statistics as of March 31, 2008 and December 31, 2007.

Portfolio Activity During the First Quarter of 2008

In January 2008, Main Street closed a $3.1 million follow-on debt investment in Technical Innovations, LLC, a designer and manufacturer of manual, semiautomatic, pneumatic and computer controlled machines and tools used primarily by medical device manufacturers to place access holes in catheters.

In January 2008, Main Street closed a $0.8 million equity investment in Uvalco Supply, LLC, a leading provider of farm and ranch supplies to ranch owners and farmers, as well as a leading provider of design, fabrication and erection services for metal buildings throughout South Texas.

In February 2008, Main Street closed a $13.0 million "one-stop" debt and equity investment in NAPCO Precast, LLC, a leading designer, manufacturer and installer of precast and prestressed concrete products serving the commercial, industrial and high density multi-family segments of the construction industry.

In March 2008, Main Street realized a $0.6 million, or $0.07 per share, gain from fully exiting its equity warrant investment in portfolio company KBK Industries, LLC.

Portfolio Activity Subsequent to the First Quarter of 2008

In April 2008, Main Street closed a $13.7 million "one-stop" debt and equity investment in OMi Holdings, Inc., a designer, manufacturer and installer of overhead material handling equipment for industrial and commercial uses.

In April 2008, Main Street received full repayment of its remaining debt investment in East Teak Hardwoods, Inc. ("East Teak"). Main Street realized a cash internal rate of return on its $4.2 million debt investment in East Teak of approximately 24%. Main Street continues to maintain its original equity investment in East Teak.

Forward Dividend Guidance / Dividend Activity

In February 2008, Main Street declared its second quarterly dividend of $0.34 per share, which was paid on March 21, 2008 to stockholders of record on February 15, 2008. This quarterly dividend represented a 3.0% sequential increase from the initial quarterly dividend declared in November 2007.

In May 2008, Main Street declared its third quarterly dividend of $0.35 per share, which will be paid on June 12, 2008 to stockholders of record on May 12, 2008. This quarterly dividend represents a 2.9% sequential increase from the prior quarterly dividend declared in February 2008.

Main Street anticipates declaring its fourth quarterly dividend during the third quarter of 2008 and currently estimates that this dividend will be in the $0.35 to $0.36 range. This projected dividend range is based upon Main Street's current estimate of taxable income and anticipated portfolio activity.
