Marti Technologies, Inc. Appoints New Interim Chief Financial Officer

ISTANBUL--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Marti Technologies, Inc. ("Marti" or the "Company") (NYSE American: MRT), Türkiye's leading mobility super app, today announced that it has appointed Deniz Terlemez as its new Interim Chief Financial Officer ("CFO"), effective November 1, 2024. Deniz Terlemez succeeds Oguz Erkan, the Company's former CFO. Mr. Terlemez served as the Company's Finance Director before his appointment as Interim CFO.

"We would like to thank Oguz Erkan for his integral contributions to the Company at a critical juncture. Oguz was instrumental in setting up the ride-hailing monetization capabilities of our organization. We are currently building on these strong foundations as we scale the monetization of our ride-hailing business. We wish him success in his future endeavours," said Oguz Alper Oktem, Marti's CEO. "We welcome Deniz in his new role at the Company. He has been a key figure at the Company, with a proven track record of delivering results in dynamic, high-growth environments during his tenure as Marti's Finance Director. His responsibilities have included overseeing our financial planning and analysis, audit, accounting, and reporting functions."

Mr. Erkan said, "I am proud to have served as Marti's CFO at an important milestone for the Company, building the team as well as the infrastructure capabilities necessary to monetize Marti's ride-hailing business. I believe the strong foundations we laid will support the Company's strategic goals moving forward."

Deniz Terlemez brings over 15 years of experience in executive finance roles across industries including manufacturing, advisory, and services. His extensive background includes audit, financial management, and controllership roles. Before joining Marti, Mr. Terlemez served as Senior Finance Manager for Reef Technology, overseeing the Middle East operations from 2022 to 2024. In this role, he acted as a key liaison between the finance, financial planning and analysis, and strategy teams across the Middle East and the US, while also supporting the financial controlling activities of Reef's US operations. Prior to his tenure at Reef, Mr. Terlemez was Group Reporting and Audit Manager for Vestel Companies, where he was responsible for public financial reporting, financial controlling, accounting, and M&A activities for the group's operations in Türkiye, Europe, and the Middle East from 2019 to 2022. From 2014 to 2019, he served as Financial Controller for Seaboard Corporation's (NYSE American: SEB) investments in Türkiye, leading the controlling and financial budgeting teams. Earlier in his career, Mr. Terlemez worked as a financial auditor at KPMG Türkiye from 2009 to 2014. Known for his expertise in optimizing financial processes and leading cross-functional teams, Mr. Terlemez has demonstrated strong leadership in managing complex financial operations across international markets. His ability to align strategic goals with financial performance has been instrumental in driving operational efficiency across the companies he served.
