SEI Names Kristina Harshany Director of Business Development for Private Wealth Management

OAKS, PA -- (Marketwire) -- 09/24/12 -- SEI (NASDAQ: SEIC) today announced that Kristina Harshany has been named Director of Business Development for the company's Private Wealth Management business segment. In this role, Kristina will be responsible for advising, managing, and developing new relationships with ultra-high-net worth individuals. She brings with her nearly a decade of experience in segments of financial-services and estate-planning strategy.

"With diverse experience across the financial product and services spectrum, Kristina brings valuable perspective to our team, but more importantly, to our clients," said Michael Farrell, Managing Director for SEI Private Wealth Management. "She understands our unique approach and the value it provides to help ultra-wealthy families better define and achieve their wealth and life goals."

Prior to joining SEI, Kristina was a Senior Vice President of the Financial Intermediaries Group of Citibank, where her primary role was to enhance the products and services offered by the 1031 exchange industry. Previously, she served as an Assistant Vice President and Executive Account Manager at LandAmerica Financial Group, Inc. In this role, Kristina was responsible for implementing and supporting sales strategies to drive business.

Kristina is a Certified Exchange Specialist® and serves on the Board of Directors for Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Philadelphia, where she was twice recognized as "Outstanding Member At Large." In recent years she has also been selected to be a part of notable lists such as "Philly's Top Bankers" by SmartCEO Magazine and "40 Under 40" by the Philadelphia Business Journal.
