Regent Seven Seas Cruises® Unveils ‘Navigate the Seasons’ - The New 2026-2027 Voyage Collection for Seven Seas Navigator®

Regent
SEVEN SEAS CRUISES®

New Itineraries Include Winter Sailings in the Mediterranean for the First Time in Regent’s History

MIAMI, December 17, 2025: Regent Seven Seas Cruises®, the world’s leading ultra-luxury cruise line, has unveiled a remarkable new voyage collection for Seven Seas Navigator® featuring diverse global sailings designed to entice and excite through immersive destination experiences.

Regent’s new collection features 32 itineraries sailing between November 1, 2026, and November 20, 2027, ranging from 9 to 27 nights. This includes the brand’s first full winter season in the Mediterranean, offering luxury travelers a fresh perspective on one of the world’s most beloved destinations. Guests can enjoy leisurely strolls through storied streets, explore intriguing galleries and museums, and savor elegant restaurants infused with authentic local character. Following its Mediterranean season, Seven Seas Navigator will embark on an extraordinary journey across Africa, Asia, Australia, and the South Pacific.

“The launch of this new season marks an exciting evolution for Seven Seas Navigator and for Regent,” said Jason Montague, Chief Luxury Officer, Regent Seven Seas Cruises. “As the leading ultra-luxury cruise line, we are dedicated to curating an exceptional, unforgettable experience for our guests across the fleet. From quieter winters in the Mediterranean’s most beloved destinations, to adventures in Asia-Pacific and rare overnight stays in iconic ports of call, this extraordinary collection of voyages reflects our continued commitment to delivering immersive and effortlessly luxurious travel experiences.”

After a scheduled dry dock in late 2026 in Genoa, Italy, Seven Seas Navigator will debut a new chapter of luxury exploration. The intimate, all-suite ship welcomes just 496 guests across 244 suites, and 365 dedicated crew members deliver Regent’s renowned personalized service and unparalleled space at sea. Featuring Italian marble finishes, crystal chandeliers, contemporary artwork, four lounges and bars, and gourmet dining venues including Compass Rose, Prime 7, and Sette Mari at La Veranda, Seven Seas Navigator offers elegant comfort for global discovery.

Regent Seven Seas Cruises invites luxury travelers to cruise in all-inclusive, unrivaled luxury, offering a seamless and indulgent experience from the moment guests step on board. The cruise line's ever-expanding array of included luxuries features unlimited included shore excursions in every port, exquisite cuisine across specialty restaurants and al fresco dining venues, fine wines and premium spirits, daily replenished in-suite mini-bar, unlimited Wi-Fi, world-class entertainment, pre-paid gratuities, valet laundry service, and a one-night pre-cruise hotel package for guests in Concierge Suites and above. For those seeking an elevated experience, Regent's Ultimate All-Inclusive Fare includes air travel, transfer between airport and ship, and Blacklane's private executive chauffeur service allowing for a personalized journey from door to deck.

2026/2027 'Navigate the Seasons' Voyage Highlights

Rome (Civitavecchia), Italy – Barcelona, Spain
November 1, 2026 – 10-nights
Launching Regent's first-ever full winter Mediterranean season, this culture-rich journey weaves through Malta, Tunisia, Sicily, Naples and Tuscany, before continuing along the French Riviera and into Spain. With cooler temperatures and fewer crowds, it is an ideal time to experience Europe's most iconic cities in a more relaxed, immersive way.

Istanbul, Turkey – Athens (Piraeus), Greece
January 15, 2027 – 14-nights
An in-depth Eastern Mediterranean voyage that blends ancient civilizations with winter sunshine. Highlights include the ruins of Ephesus; the medieval streets of Rhodes; and extraordinary overnight calls in Limassol, Cyprus, and Alexandria, offering extraordinary access to the treasures of ancient Egypt, before concluding in Athens.

Lisbon, Portugal – Cape Town, South Africa
February 12, 2027 – 25-nights
A transcontinental voyage tracing the Atlantic coast of Africa, with calls in Madeira and the Canary Islands before continuing through Cape Verde, Senegal, The Gambia, Côte d'Ivoire, Ghana, Togo and São Tomé and Principe. A dramatic overnight call in Walvis Bay, Namibia, precedes the ship's arrival in Cape Town, framed by the iconic Table Mountain.

Tokyo, Japan - Tokyo, Japan
April 29, 2027 – 12-nights
A port-intensive exploration of Japan's striking contrasts, calling at Kobe, Kochi, Hiroshima, Beppu and Nagasaki, complemented by a culturally rich visit to Busan in South Korea. Scenic cruising through the Kanmon Strait and views of Mount Fuji from Shimizu add unforgettable highlights to the journey.

Lautoka, Fiji - Lautoka, Fiji
August 25, 2027 – 10-nights
A quintessential South Pacific escape featuring Champagne Beach on Espiritu Santo, Honiara in the Solomon Islands, and Vanuatu's vibrant Port Vila and the unspoiled beauty of Mystery Island, set among turquoise lagoons, coral reefs and volcanic peaks.

Sydney, Australia - Benoa, Bali
September 20, 2027 – 14-nights

An adventure-rich sailing from Australia to Southeast Asia, visiting Brisbane, Airlie Beach, Cairns, Thursday Island and Darwin, before crossing into Indonesia to call at Komodo Island, home to the legendary Komodo dragons, before disembarking in Benoa - a peninsula on Bali's southeast coast.
