"We are delighted to announce the latest iteration of our iconic World Cruise, which has been inspired by history's most intrepid explorers and the paths of legendary adventures," said Wesley D'Silva, President, Regent Seven Seas Cruises. "The 150-night Eras of Exploration World Cruise will be an unforgettable experience that taps into the true essence of travel and adventure; we are looking forward to bringing our discerning guests onto this journey in the most luxurious and all-inclusive way possible."

Inspired by history's greatest explorers, the Eras of Exploration 2029 World Cruise follows the great arcs of human discovery - tracing modern marvels and ancient empires to seafaring legends and storied civilizations. Departing from sleek Miami, the passage will sail deep within South America, gliding down the Amazon River before descending to the majestic peaks of Antarctica.

Guests will then cruise the awe-inspiring Pacific Ocean, exploring mythic islands of Polynesia before reaching the dramatic coastlines of Australia and onto southeast Asia where ancient temples and modern skyscrapers dot the horizon. Crossing the Indian Ocean will take guests on a journey to marvel at the architectural feats of Indian and Arabian dynasties, sacred cities of Petra, and the banks of the Nile River. The epic sojourn will conclude sailing the romantic, historic coastlines of the Mediterranean before culminating in the Eternal City - Rome.

Promising guests an immersive journey across the globe, 326 included shore excursions are offered as part of Regent's unrivaled all-inclusive luxury offering. The adventurous at heart will have ample opportunity to deep dive into some of the world's jaw-dropping destinations thanks to 13 overnight stays in fascinating locales such as Lima (Callao), Peru and Sydney, Australia.

After a day's exploration, guests will return to the luxurious Seven Seas Mariner. The thoughtfully executed refurbishments made at the end of 2025 mirror the same impeccable attention to detail seen on Regent's renowned Explorer-Class ships. The investment has transformed the ship with refreshed suites complete with updated furnishings and details; fully redesigned marble bathrooms for Signature, Grand, Mariner, Seven Seas and Horizon Suites; and a newly enhanced Pool Grill elevated with a new pizzeria concept. In addition, Regent has elevated the standard for culinary enrichment at sea with the launch of its new Epicurean Enrichment Studio, a state-of-the-art culinary theater on board Seven Seas Mariner for its current World Cruise.

Before embarking on Seven Seas Mariner, guests will begin their adventure with a one-night pre-cruise stay in a luxury hotel in vibrant and lively Miami, Florida, and an exclusive pre-cruise gala dinner. Regent's World Cruises are elevated with a range of luxurious enhancements including exclusive shoreside experiences and commemorative gift, as well as bespoke amenities such as unlimited laundry - including dry cleaning and pressing, a door-to-door luggage service, onboard medical consultations, and more.
