Veritone Expands CBS News Partnership and Adds CBS Media Ventures' Iconic Entertainment Programs

The Top Two Syndicated Newsmagazine Programs, "Entertainment Tonight" and "Inside Edition," Now Available to License Through Veritone

IRVINE, CALIF. – October 28, 2025 – Veritone, Inc. (NASDAQ: VERI), a leader in human-centered enterprise AI solutions, today announced it expanded its partnership with CBS News to include many of CBS Media Ventures' iconic entertainment properties.

For 15 years, Veritone has had the rights to license CBS News' extensive archives to television producers, filmmakers, and content creators. This expanded partnership now features CBS Media Ventures' high-quality catalog, including the syndicated franchises "Entertainment Tonight" and "Inside Edition," the classic talk show, "The Mike Douglas Show," and the news magazine "The Insider."

Leveraging the advanced AI capabilities of Veritone's aiWARE™ platform and Digital Media Hub (DMH), the library, which combines more than 30,000 episodes over 55 years, will be indexed and enriched with accurate, time-correlated metadata, enabling efficient search and retrieval of content. This comprehensive AI-optimized solution increases access to CBS's extensive archive and helps automate rights management and delivery, maximizing revenue opportunities and empowering creatives with content for feature films, documentaries, and beyond.

"Content creators with followings of all sizes are struggling to keep up with viewers' insatiable appetite for content," said Sean King, Chief Revenue Officer and GM of Veritone Commercial. "We're proud to help organizations, like CBS, provide a catalyst that unlocks the value of proprietary content through AI, making their impressive library more discoverable and accessible, and enhancing audience experiences across digital channels."

The expanded partnership further solidifies Veritone's leadership position in the media and entertainment industry, underscoring its commitment to helping brands optimize content distribution and maximize revenue.
