"We are elated that the commercial aired and we have successfully started this campaign. With today's news and senate hearing we believe the audience size is much greater than traditional audiences at this time slot. I believe we will have a great response from this first run and are looking forward to additional airings," states Greg Lambrecht, CEO.

The commercial is schedule to air again tonight during prime time on the west coast at approximately 10:55PM Pacific Standard time on Fox News.
