Lovesac Announces New Online Launch With BestBuy.com

Lovesac Will Reach a New Consumer and Allow them to Experience Total Comfort through BestBuy.Com

NEW YORK, Nov. 12, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Lovesac (Nasdaq: LOVE), the home furnishing brand, best known for its Sactionals – The World's Most Adaptable Couch™ – today announced its online launch with global retailer Best Buy. The Lovesac online shopping experience on BestBuy.com kicked off on November 2, 2020 and is available at www.BestBuy.com/Lovesac.

The online launch of Lovesac on BestBuy.com expands beyond shop-in-shops within Best Buy stores that opened last year, providing additional reach for Lovesac with a demonstrated leader in innovation in the online retail space. Lovesac has had strong success and a proven track record as demonstrated by its category leading sales productivity in its small footprint showrooms and successful online retail presence. In addition, the company operates pop-up shops outside of its owned channels that have delivered strong performance. This expanded online launch with Best Buy will continue to allow Lovesac to extend its digital presence and brand reach in an agile and capital efficient manner.

"We are very excited to announce the launch of Lovesac sales online with Best Buy just in time for the holiday shopping season," commented Shawn Nelson, founder and CEO of Lovesac. "Showcasing our products through established and innovative online retailers like Best Buy expands our brand awareness serving as another digital touchpoint during the Sactionals shopping journey, and through this partnership we will be able to reach a broader audience and accelerate adoption of the Sactionals Platform. We believe the Best Buy brand and their customer profile is a great fit with the Lovesac brand and future product innovations. We look forward to a successful and growing relationship together."
