

Company Overview

We Unify Enterprise Information and Make It Actionable

Boardwalktech Software Corp is a developer of transformational enterprise information management technology solutions. It has developed a Digital Ledger database technology designed specifically for collaborative, multi-party enterprise applications making both structured and unstructured data actionable for the enterprise. The company serves the CPG; High Tech; Financial Services; Manufacturing; Retail; Apparel; Insurance, Life Sciences and Government industries. Its revenue is generated from two primary sources -- software subscriptions for access to the platform and professional services. The company's products include its core Boardwalk Unity Digital Ledger Platform, a complete suite of planning applications, Boardwalk Radius for predictive analytics and insights via machine learning, and the Boardwalk Excel Cloud used to scale and secure the data found in desktop Excel files spread across the extended enterprise.
