Salem Talk Host Receives Doctorate of Ministry Degree

CAMARILLO, CA -- (Marketwired) -- 10/28/13 -- Salem Radio Talk Show Host Don Kroah has been referred to as Doctor before, but now he really IS one. Salem Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: SALM), a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and conservative opinion content, today announced that Kroah was presented with an earned Doctorate of Ministry Degree from Calvary Christian College in Waldorf, Maryland by College President Dr. Timothy Wood on October 7th . Before receiving the honor, Kroah delivered the Commencement Address to the graduating class of 2013.

An alumnus of Valley Forge Christian College, Don's previous academic work included studies in psychology and philosophy at the University of Southern Maine and in journalism at Regent University's School of Communication and the Arts in Alexandria, VA.

Now in his 16th year as host of The Don Kroah Show on 105.1 WAVA-FM in Washington, DC, Don joined Salem Media of Virginia on October 20, 1997 following 34 years of fulltime pastoral work in Maine. While there he also worked extensively in general market radio as a news director, news anchor, commentator, and morning show host in the Augusta, Waterville, and Portland markets.

In 2006 Don was given the coveted Andy Anderson Award for Radio Talk Host of the Year by WAVA's parent company, Salem Communications. The Don Kroah Show has received multiple-year awards at the Annual Awards Events of the Virginia Association of Broadcasters. In 2010 Christian Solidarity International also presented Don with its Radio Broadcasters Award "for unwavering dedication and commitment to the people of Southern Sudan."

In addition to having traveled to numerous countries on behalf of World Vision, Food For The Poor, and the Bible League, Don also conducts regular trips on his own time to nations in Africa to help train, strengthen and equip pastors and churches there.

The Don Kroah Show can be heard Monday through Friday from 4 to 7 p.m. on 105.1 WAVA-FM and live on the Internet at www.wava.com.
