The Sean Hannity show will air live in the 3pm to 6pm ET time slot. Hannity has aired across town on WJR since 2001 when his show first went national, on the day before 9/11.

"We couldn't be happier to join the talented roster at Detroit's News Talk 1400 WDTK," said Eric Stanger, VP of Operations for The Sean Hannity Show. "WDTK is the best destination for talk in the Motor City and we're excited to partner with them."

The Sean Hannity show became the fastest growing nationally syndicated radio talk show after 9/11. Today, he's the second most-listened-to radio show host in America with nearly 13 million weekly listeners and more than 500 affiliates. He also continues to host the popular Hannity TV program weeknights on the Fox News Channel.

"The opportunity to bring Sean Hannity aboard was one we felt we could not pass up," said WDTK General Manager Chris MacCourtney. "Sean was an instant hit when he came to Detroit and he continues to be one of the most popular talk personalities in the market.
