Roseland, a Subsidiary of Mack-Cali Realty Corporation, Promotes Andrew Marshall to Chief Operating Officer

Port Imperial Redevelopment Project Visionary Joins Roseland's C-Suite

SHORT HILLS, N.J., June 23, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Roseland, a subsidiary of Mack-Cali Realty Corporation (NYSE: CLI), today announced that Andrew Marshall has been promoted to the position of chief operating officer. In his new role, Mr. Marshall will oversee the day-to-day operations of Roseland and will continue as the Company's executive vice president of development.

"Throughout his tenure with Roseland, Andy has been an invaluable asset to our team through his strategic and thoughtful management of development," said Marshall Tycher, president of Roseland. "Among his many accomplishments, Andy has been the leader of the master-planned redevelopment at Port Imperial, playing a critical role in transforming the site into the thriving waterfront community that has emerged."

"I'm honored to have the opportunity to advance my career at Roseland in the role of chief operating officer," said Mr. Marshall. "It goes without saying that the support of my colleagues and mentors at Roseland throughout the years has been instrumental not only to my growth as a professional, but to the continued success of our multi-family development across key Northeast markets."

About Roseland
