Hercules Receives a BBB+ Reaffirmed Investment Grade Corporate Rating from Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc.

PALO ALTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hercules Capital, Inc. (NYSE: HTGC) (“Hercules” or the “Company”), the largest and leading specialty financing provider to innovative venture, growth and established stage companies backed by some of the leading and top-tier venture capital and select private equity firms, today announced that Kroll Bond Rating Agency, Inc. (“KBRA”) has reaffirmed Hercules’ investment grade corporate and credit rating of BBB+. KBRA issued a statement announcing the reaffirmation of the rating and stable outlook, as well as its underlying analysis.

“We are very pleased that KBRA has reaffirmed our BBB+ investment grade corporate and credit rating,” stated Seth Meyer, chief financial officer of Hercules. “This rating is further validation of our differentiated venture and growth stage lending strategy and commitment to our stringent underwriting standards, as well as the depth and capabilities of our management team and ability to continue with our managed growth strategy.”

The affirmed BBB+ rating reflects the Company’s focus on senior secured debt investments in the technology and life sciences sectors, minimal historical non-accruals, including during the global financial crisis, as well as appropriate leverage metrics. The ratings are also supported by Hercules’ proven access to the capital markets, solid earnings record over its 17-year operating history, robust risk management and adequate unsecured debt outstanding to total debt ratio.
