Sebastian Brooke has decided to leave Seajacks and seek new opportunities

Sebastian Brooke is a founder of Seajacks, a member of the senior management team since 2009, and formally took over the leadership of Seajacks in May 2023. Since then, a lot has happened. Sebastian has played a vital role in making Seajacks a commercial success and paved the way for the merger with Cadeler, which has positioned the new Cadeler as the market leader in offshore wind installation.

"This is a natural time for me to step back and reflect on my next move. I have really enjoyed the years I have worked at Seajacks, am extremely proud of what the organization has achieved and am very grateful to have shared the journey with so many capable colleagues and friends. During the next period I am planning to spend time with my family and reflect on my future endeavours." says Sebastian Brooke in a statement.

"I fully respect Sebastian's decision. Throughout the years in Seajacks, Sebastian has delivered impressive results and a dedicated effort – which I know is recognized by both colleagues and partners throughout the industry", says Mikkel Gleerup, CEO of Cadeler.
