Related Party Transaction Policy and Procedures

POLICY

Tanger Factory Outlet Centers, Inc. (the “Company”) recognizes that related party transactions present a heightened risk of conflicts of interest (or the perception thereof) and therefore the Company has adopted this policy pursuant to which all Related Party Transactions (as defined below) shall be subject to approval or ratification in accordance with the procedures set forth in this policy.

For the purposes of this policy, a “Related Party Transaction” is a transaction, arrangement or relationship (or any series of similar transactions, arrangements or relationships) in which the Company (including any of its subsidiaries) was, is or will be a participant and the amount involved exceeds $120,000 and in which any Related Party (as defined below) had, has or will have a direct or indirect material interest.

PROCEDURES

Identification of Related Party Transactions

The Company reviews all known transactions, arrangements and relationships in which the Company and a Related Party are participants to determine whether such transactions, arrangements and relationships constitute Related Party Transactions. The Company’s accounting team is primarily responsible for developing and implementing processes and procedures to obtain information regarding Related Parties with respect to potential Related Party Transactions and then determining, based on the facts and circumstances, whether such potential Related Party Transactions do, in fact, constitute Related Party Transactions requiring compliance with this policy. In addition, any potential Related Party Transaction that is proposed to be entered into by the Company must be reported to the Company’s Chief Financial Officer or his or her designee, by both the Related Party and the person at the Company responsible for such potential Related Party Transaction.

Audit Committee Approval

If the Company’s accounting team determines that a transaction or relationship is a Related Person Transaction, then the Chief Financial Officer shall present to the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Company each such Related Party Transaction, including the relevant facts and circumstances related thereto. The Committee shall review the relevant facts and circumstances of each Related Party Transaction, including if the transaction is on terms comparable to those that could be obtained in arm’s length dealings with an unrelated third party and the extent of the Related Party’s interest in the transaction, take into account the conflicts of interest and corporate opportunity provisions of the Company’s Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (the “Code”), and either approve or disapprove the Related Party Transaction. Any Related Party Transaction shall be consummated and shall continue only if the Committee has approved or ratified such transaction in accordance with the guidelines set forth in this Policy. If advance Committee approval of a Related Party Transaction requiring the Committee’s approval is not practicable, then the transaction may be preliminarily entered into by management upon prior approval of the transaction by the Chair of the Committee subject to ratification of the transaction by the Committee not later than the Committee’s next regularly scheduled meeting; provided that if ratification shall not be forthcoming, management shall make all reasonable efforts to cancel or annul such transaction. If a transaction was not initially recognized as a Related Party Transaction, then upon such recognition the transaction will be presented to the Committee for ratification at the Committee's next regularly scheduled meeting; provided, that if ratification shall not be forthcoming, management shall make all reasonable efforts to cancel or annul such transaction.

Management shall update the Committee as to any material changes to any approved or ratified Related Party Transaction and shall provide a status report at least annually at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Committee of all then current Related Party Transactions.

No director may participate in approval of a Related Party Transaction for which he or she is a Related Party.
