Farooq Kathwari, Ethan Allen's Chairman, President and CEO commented, "We are pleased with the favorable customer response to the Ethan Allen Member Program, which we launched in October 2019. As we mentioned when we launched the program, we expected sales and operating income to be negatively impacted during the transition period as we move from a promotional to membership model, providing our clients an improved customer experience through everyday savings."

"While our wholesale orders, which reflects sales through all our channels, decreased 22% from a year ago, we realized sequential improvement in orders each month during the second quarter, with October reflecting a decrease to the prior year, November reflecting a lesser decrease and December orders increasing year over year," Mr. Kathwari continued.

"We are pleased that our unique vertical structure continues to provide strong operating leverage to allow us to consistently return value to our shareholders through our regular quarterly dividend, periodic special cash dividends and share repurchases. During our second quarter we paid $5.6 million in cash dividends and repurchased 545,727 shares, representing 2.1% of our outstanding shares."

Mr. Kathwari concluded, "For our third quarter, as the Member Program continues to gain momentum, we have a strong marketing program planned, starting with a direct mail magazine being distributed this month to 2.5 million households. This will be supported by various other marketing channels including local television in select markets and digital and social marketing. I am also pleased to announce that Rodney Hutton has recently joined Ethan Allen as our Chief Marketing Officer. Rodney brings a strong marketing and brand building background having previously held senior marketing leadership roles in a number of leading enterprises including Karl Lagerfeld, Ann Klein, Ralph Lauren and Giorgio Armani.”
