Salem Launches New FM Talker, "Conservative Talk 94.5 FM" in Greenville, South Carolina

DALLAS, TX -- (Marketwire) -- 12/03/12 -- Salem Communications Corporation (NASDAQ: SALM), a leading U.S. radio broadcaster, Internet content provider, and magazine and book publisher targeting audiences interested in Christian and conservative opinion content, announced today that it is adding another NewsTalk radio station to its stable of talk stations around the country beginning Monday, December 3rd. "Conservative Talk 94.5 FM" in the Greenville-Spartanburg, South Carolina market was launched with the LMA of WMUU-FM. The new talker is the 26th NewsTalk radio station owned by Salem.

"It is always exciting to enter a new market in which we have not had an owned and operated station. The Greenville-Spartanburg-Anderson corridor of the Upstate of South Carolina is among the most dynamic in the Southeast," said Greg Anderson, President of Salem National. "It's equally exciting to debut our format and programming on a dominant, crystal clear 100,000 watt signal that will blanket the entire market. For the first time a NewsTalk format will be heard throughout the entire metro market and well beyond. Listeners will be informed and entertained by some of the best talk personalities in the country including long-time Greenville-Spartanburg personality, Mike Gallagher," Anderson continued.

The station will feature the lineup of Bill Bennett's Morning In America 6am-9am, Mike Gallagher 9am to Noon, Dennis Prager Noon to 3pm, Michael Medved 3pm to 6pm, Hugh Hewitt 6pm to 9pm and Mark Levin 9pm to midnight. Former CBS Morning News Co-Host and Greenville native Jane Robelot will anchor the station's morning news beginning in January.

"We're thrilled to have our entire SRN lineup clearing live on Conservative Talk 94.5 FM," said Tom Tradup, Vice President/News & Talk Programming for SRN. "It is especially gratifying to have the Upstate's own Mike Gallagher expanding to a full three hours on our new FM talk station."
